Story Hour held

The children's room of the Back Mountain Memorial Library was alive with entertainment during National Library Week. College Misericordia students from Dr. Molly Vitale's class in children's literature entertained the Story Hour children on Wednesday and Thursday. Maureen Connolly showed color combinations through songs, drawings and books. Georgia Kokas presented a chalk talk story on Wednesday afternoon. Thursday morning Kathi Bovine and Charlene Santarelli read the "Lion and the Rat." The children created their own lions from paper and pipe cleaners. An original puppet stage production of the favorite story, "The Three Bears" was presented by Judy Dessoye, Denise Yoder, Carol Gesumaria, Kellie Knapich. The bears handed out lollipops as the final curtain fell. Shown here are, from left, seated, Jonathan Roskos, Susan Dwinchik, Bryan Balla, Timothy Balla, Jessica Kleinhaus, Melissa Sweetz, Rachael Harrison, Kristan Rogan, Bryan McCulloch, Alison Platt, Jamie Platt, Tripp Graham. Standing, Marilyn Rudolph, Children's Librarian; Charlene Santarelli, Kathi Bovine, Sharon Rogan holding Megan, Pat Makara and Nicole Makara.

Back Mountain on the move

GUYS AND DOLLS, a musical fable of Broadway presented by Dallas High School stuaauauauuon Thursday, Friday and Saturday night was excellent. If you like Broadway plays you'd wonder why we pay $15 a tickets when our own students perform just as well.

Miss Adelaide, played by Maura Mundy, brought smiles to the face whenever she came on stage even before she spoke, once she began the auditorium was filled with laughter.

HILLARD

Nathan Detroit, played by Timothy Corcoran, gave her a hard time throughout the entire play.

The plot of the play was based on gambling and some love lives being interrupted as a result. Sarah Brown, played by Marilyn Ward and Sky Masterson played by D.J. Hopkins were always there to change your mood when most unexpected. This New York based play of Hob Box dancers and crap game gamblers was excellent.

It was a very entertaining evening directed by Donald Hopkins, vocal and choreographer director was Florence Sherwood and the stars were our own senior high students. New York brought to the Back Mountain and enjoyed by a 3-nite full house audience.

THURSDAY EVENING was also special for members of the Dallas Area Federated Womens Club. Long standing members and past presidents were honored with flowers and a cross-stitch name tag, with their name and year they were president on it.

These beautiful pieces of work were done by Maryann Daily and I know mine will be framed forever.

Jane Stair and Martha Reese were honored for 30 years of service to the Federation. Jan Borton and Sheila Bonawitz for 25 years and Diana Dreher, Sandy Richardson, Helen Davis, Theresa Thompson, Alice Niskey and Evelyn Farrell for 20 years or more. Past Presidents honored were Mary Ann Davies, Jean Hillard, Nancy Rowlands, Marlene Rollman, Pat Smaka and presently serving as President is Shirley Smith. The Federation of Womens Clubs is the largest organization of womans clubs in the world.

MRS. CLAIRE WESLEY, a resident of the Meadows Apartments in Dallas and a former Sweet Valley resident for many, many years was honored at a birthday party at the American Legion in Dallas last Sunday.

The party was given by her family and over 70 family members and a few friends wetherethero help wish her a happy day. Mrs. Wesley was our neighbor in Sweet Valley when I was growing up as a child. I'd like to add my birthday greetings to her also. Happy Birthday Claire, it was a long deserved party for you.

THOSE FLORIDA TANS are fading fast and the list goes on as to Back Mountain residents who are begging for sunshine.

THE HARVEY FAMILY (we all know Linda from the Hoagie Bar) Linda, Glen and daughters Chrissy and Randy spent 10 days over the Easter Holiday in Florida. I understand they were staying only a few minutes from where we were however, we didn't see them once. They also enjoyed Disneyworld, Epcot, Wet 'N Wild, the Alligator zoos etc.

I know you had a great trip but why the sun block Linda? Chris and Randy were afraid of getting burned because the sun was so strong, you're probably smarter of us all!

ASSISTANT CHIEF OF POLICE JOHN LERCH and family of Harveys Lake were also in Florida over the Easter Holiday and I'm told the chief loved the sunshine and is threatening to go back to Florida if the Back Mountain doesn't warm up pretty soon!

JILL RADZINSKI, a student at Penn State Main Campus was seen in Disneyworld on Easter break along with Willey Whitesell and Tara Strausser. The three Dallas area residents were enjoying the sights and full fo smiles when we spotted them.

MR. AND MRS. PAUL EVANS of Shavertown spent 10 days in Miami recently visiting their son Tom and family. They also visited the Sobecks who are former Luzerne residents.

PETER AND MARY RICCI and daughter, Mary of Haddonfield Hills, Dallas spent Easter week in Disneyworld, Epcot and visited Gatorland and all the other fun things. Little Mary stopped in to see me with her mother and she's still full of excitement from the trip. Her greatest thrill was the electrical show and Tinker Bell going over Disneyworld. For as young as she is I'm sure this trip will be special to her forever.

PEG AND JIM THOMAS of Pear

Tree Lane, Dallas, were honored at a surprise 25th anniversary dinner Saturday evening at Perugino's. Peg and Jim are the parents of five children who made this surprise dinner so special. Happy 25th to you, may your next 25 be filled with more health and happiness and lots of grandchildren.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY WISHES this week go to my husband Charlie Hillard, who celebrated his big day on Friday, the 11th. A birthday dinner with granddaughter Loni Jean having her first taste of lobster was enjoyed Friday evening followed by cake and ice cream at daughter Loni and Bill Piekanski's house where grandson Billy Ray and the rest of the kids joined us.

KSTEVE CAMERON of Woodlawn Avenue, Dallas, celebrated his big day Saturday, April 12. I don't know what all surprises Steve had but I'm sure wife Valerie had a lot for him too. Happy birthday, Steve.

GAIL THOMAS, daughter of Dr. Evan and Carol Thomas of Sutton Hills, Shavertown, is suffering some discomfort from a sprained neck she received in an auto accident last Sunday night near Duke Isaacs in Truicksville.

Special "feel better soon" wishes go to Gail from all her friends. A car came through a red light and struck the van Gail and three other youth group kids were riding in. Gail is the only one who was injured.

HUGH AND LINDA WOODWARD, Demunds Road, Dallas, took advantage of the sunny day and hit the golf course Sunday afternoon for the first time this spring. Sunshine in Dallas, let's think about it all week!
