Opening Day action

Miller honored

Charlotte Slocum presents Jim Miller of WBRE-TV, Channel 28 with a clock for serving as guest speaker at the Lake-Lehman Junior Senior High School Wrestling Banquet.

Wrestling Club holds annual banquet

The Lake-Lehman Wrestling mothers association held its annual banquet for the Junior-Senior High wrestlers recently at the Knights of Columbus in Luzerne. Honored guests for the evening were Mr. Jim Miller, Sports Director of WBRE-TV as the guest speaker, Rick and Rock Bonomo graduates of Lake-Lehman

High School and nationally renowned wrestlers, also Mr. and Mrs. E. King, as fans of the year.

The Lake-Lehman All Sports Booster Club honored Jeff Austin for earning his 100th career win this past season. They also presented Jeff with an oversize photograph taken during the match when he recorded his 100th win. Austin also received the Most Outstanding Wrestler Award and the Tracy Slocum Award for the most career wins by a senior. Austin terminated his high school career earning a 4 year record of 118-21-5 and this season posting an undefeated season in dual meets, 6th at States, 4th at Regionals, 2nd at Districts.
