Senior Olympics are slated

The 10th Annual Senior Citizens Olympics will be held on Saturday, May 10 at College Misericordia, Dallas. The program is co-sponsored by the Luzerne-Wyoming County Bureau of Aging and College Misericordia.

Individuals 60 years of older, in good health and members of a senior citizens center, club or organization in Luzerne or Wyoming counties are invited to attend the olympics as a participant or spectator. Registration forms can be obtained from local centers or organizations.

From 10 a.m. to noon, a bowling competition will take place at Chacko's West Lanes, Luzerne, and Chacko's East Lanes, Wilkes-Barre.

The remaining events, which include bocci ball, bicycling, softball throw, a mile walking race, basketball free throw and horse-shoes will be held at the Dallas campus from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

There will be separate competitions for men and women, except in team bowling and team bocci ball. Additional activities include health screenings, non-competitive games, music and dancing. Lee Vincent and His Orchestra will perform at 1:30 p.m. The orchestra's appearance is made possible through the Music Performance Trust Funds, a public service organization of the American Federation of Musicians.

Two trophies, donated by the John Heinz Institute of Rehabilitation, Wilkes-Barre, will be awarded to the senior citizens centers with the highest number of overall points.

4-Hers awarded

4-H Club holds gathering

4-H Horse club members, leaders, and parents gathered recently at the Chalet Restaurant in Mountain-top for the fourth Annual Horse Achievement Banquet. Extension Agent, Donna Skog, notes that this banquet was held to recognize the members and leaders for their time, dedication and participation in the 4-H horse program.

Members who participated in the County, District and State Horse shows received certificates for their achievements. Back Mountain residents who participated only in the County show were: Neva Bauer, Dallas; Lindee deLeur, Dallas; Nancy Downend, Dallas; Laurie Dunne, Dallas; Daria Nice, Sweet Valley.

Defense

Rich Jurosky led off the bottom of the seventh with a single. A walk and an out later, Ed Kwak connected on a RBI single to center. Dombek followed by beating out an infield single that sent home another run and cut the Lehman lead to 7-4. Then, with two outs, catcher John Wertman hit a RBI single to center to score Kwak. Coach Barbacci had seen enough.

He pulled his sophomore pitcher Brett Evans, who had pitched so well, out of the game. Reliever Todd Salo made four pitches to Johnny Harris before getting him to ground to third to end the game.

With the loss, Dallas goes to 10-3 and into second place in the Wyoming Valley Conference. The win improves Lehman to 7-6 and keeps its playoff hopes alive for one of two berths in the AA ranks.

Back Mountain Little League news

In Back Mountain Little League action this past week, the Yankees, with David Fisher on the mound, squeaked by the Astros, 13-11. Fisher got his first win of the new year with relief help from Ned Falka and Brian Miller. Yankee John Prebola was a big 3 for 4 at the plate while mate Robbie Jacoboski ripped a double and showed fine defensive ability behind the plate. Big hitter for the Astros was Stan Gubish going 3 for 4 including this year's first home run.

The Indians banged away at the Orioles to win by a score of 9-4. Brian Brady was credited with a win on the mound with three innings of shut-out relief help from Jason Davies. Offensively for the Indians Davies banged a single and double scoring twice while teammate Mark Lamoureux went two for three scoring three times.

Other Indian hitters were Brian Burd, two for two, Bobby Luke and Matt Bailey connecting for doubles while Jarred Cooney nailed a single.
