Roast slated

On Friday, June 13, the Lake-Lehman Band Sponsors, Colleagues and Friends of John Miliauskas will be celebrating 30 years of musical memories with him. You are invited to join us for a night of fun and many surprises.

The Toast and Roast will be held at Convention Center, Pittston Township on Friday, June 13. The evening begins with hors d'oeuvres and cocktails at 6 p.m., followed by a family style dinner at 7 p.m. The toasting and roasting will be set in motion at 8 followed directly afterwards by dancing and an open bar from 9 till 7. We are looking forward to you joining us for an evening of fun. The cost for the evening will be $20 for adults and $10 for students.

Reservations can be made by mailing your payment to Judy Kmetz, 367 Smith Pond Rd., Shavertown, PA 18708. Please make checks payable to JM Toast and Roast.

Concert planned Seniors go at it during Olympics

The Dallas Junior High School Mixed Chorus, directed by Mrs. Florence H. Sherwood, and the band, directed by David C. Benn, will present their annual Spring Concert on Friday, May 16, at 7:30 p.m. in the Dallas Junior High School Auditorium. Part I will be presented by the chorus, using the theme "American Songs and Dances." Part II will feature a variety of styles of music by the band and ensemble groups. The concert is open to the public free of charge. Shown here are members of the chorus who will participate in the concert.

By CHARLOT M. DENMON Staff Correspondent

David Williams of Kingston was the overall winner of the men's trophy and Marie Tassi of Wilkes-Barre took the overall woman's trophy in the 10th Annual Senior Citizens Olympic held at College Misericordia, Dallas, Saturday. Several hundred senior citizens representing 13 Centers in Luzerne and Wyoming Counties took part in the competition which actually started Friday, with bowling at Chacko's West in Luzerne.

Wilkes-Barre Center won the large center trophy with a total of 153 points, followed by Kingston, second and Pittston, third. Winner of the small center trophy was Hazle Township with 22 points. Freeland was second among the small centers and Plains was third. College Misericordia faculty members Geri Wall and Prof. Thomas O'Neill volunteered their services for the Olympics, just as they have since the first competition was initiated 10 years ago. Students also volunteered their services, working as scorekeepers and guides for the various events which started at 9 a.m., Saturday, on the college campus. In addition to bowling on Friday, bocci ball, softball throw, walking races, bicycling, basketball throw and horseshoes were included in the competition. For those senior citizens, who came out for enjoyment only, there were health screenings, non-competitive games, and music for dancing from 1:30 to 3 p.m., by Lee Vincent's Orchestra in Merrick Hall. Team members participating in the various events earn points for their Centers by placing, first, second or third. First place winners earned 10 points, second place, eight and third place, six. Winners of the bowling competition, Friday, were males Stanley Magdan, Wilkes-Barre Center, 1st-205; Gene Ercolani, Wilkes-Barre Center, 2nd-204, and Marcel Beitzel, Freeland Center, 3rd-200; female winners were Sue Kopaczak, Wilkes-Barre, 1st-207; Josephine Cuper, Wilkes-Barre, 2nd-170; and Ruth Samley, Wilkes-Barre, 3rd-167. In the team events, first place was taken by the men's team from Wilkes-Barre with 773; second place by the Wyoming County Center's team with 706; and third place by Nanticoke Center's team with 705. All competitive events were divided into two categories, men and women. Results of these were Bocci-Ball-1st place Hazleton Township; 2nd place-Wilkes-Barre Township and 3rd place, Wyoming County. Walking-Women, 1st place, Lydia Patterson; 2nd place, Ann Jozwiak, both of Wilkes-Barre; 3rd place, Grace Andalaro, Pittston; Men, 1st place, Chick Kreller, Dallas; 2nd-Elwood Carpenter, Pittston; and 3rd, Joseph Gillis, Wilkes-Barre. Bicycling, Men, 1st place, Elwood Carpenter, Pittston and Harry Shovlin, Wilkes-Barre, tied; 3rd, Chick Kreller, Dallas and David Williams, Kingston, tied; Women, 1st place, Olwen Oldfield, Kingston; 2nd, Mildred Van Auker, Kingston; and Lydia Patterson, tied. Basketball, Women, 1st, Marie Tassi; 2nd Jean Bialek, both of Wilkes-Barre; 3rd, Jean Klass, Hazle Township; Men, 1st, David Williams, Kingston; 2nd, Harry Shovlin, Wilkes-Barre; 3rd, Dominick Galucci, Freeland.

Softball Throw, Women, 1st place, Sue Koczak; 2nd, Judy Shovlin; 3rd, Mildred O'Brien, all of Wilkes-Barre; Men, 1st, David Williams; 2nd, Ronald Merrimac, Pittston; 3rd, Harry Shovlin, Wilkes-Barre. Horseshoes, Women, 1st place, Betty Smith, Millie Brown, Wyoming; 2nd, Mary Rafalko, Mary Tassi, Wilkes-Barre; and 3rd, Ann Colangelo, Amelia Chirko, Hazle Township; Men, 1st place, Dino DiPasquale, Julio Barbacci, Plains; 2nd, David Williams, John Evans, Kingston; and 3rd, Ed Greystock, Ed Witkowski, Wilkes-Barre.

The day was perfect for the outdoor event with the sun, blue sky and a warm breeze contributing to the perfect setting on the college campus. Directors of the various Centers were present to assist their members in finding the events in which they registered to participate but the one individual, who seemed to be everywhere at once informing her members where they should be was Dallas resident Irene Smith, director of the Wilkes-Barre Center, the Center which has won the largest center trophy for 10 consecutive years.

Congratulations to you, Irene, and to your members who were such fine sports.

Free soccer clinic slated

A free soccer clinic for players, ages 6-17, will be held on May 15-16, 6:30 - 9 p.m., at College Misericordia in Dallas.

English coach Steve Bateup, a qualified member of the British Football Association, will conduct the instructional clinic for children and parents. Participants may attend either day or both days at their convenience. The on-field demonstrations require players to bring their own balls.

The clinic is sponsored by North American Soccer Camps which will also conduct a soccer day camp, August 4-9, at College Misericordia. Pre-registration for the day camp will be held in Merrick Hall on May 15-16. For details, call 675-2181, ext. 331.
