Around town

LAST TUESDAY, members and friends of the Dorcas Society of St. Paul's Lutheran Church enjoyed a lovely fashion show held in the church social rooms.

Bright, colorful fashions from the Heart of Fashions were featured. A nice touch was added when washing instructions were noted during the description of the garment.

Each hostess provided a dessert for her guests. The tables were beautiful, featuring floral arrangements and fine china.

SINCERE SYMPATHY is extended to the family of Leo Chase, who passed away last week. Mr. Chase owned and operated Dallas Drugs for a number of years. Those of us who grew up in the Back Mountain are well acquainted with his friendly smile and manner. He was truly a nice man and will be missed by many.

MR. BERNIE OTT recently presented a Buckle-Up Program at Trinity Nursery School. Ott, chairman of the county-wide program, elicited a pledge from the children to buckle up whenever they ride in a car.

According to one of the films shown, a person not wearing a seatbelt when in an accident has a six times greater chance of being hurt or killed.

THE GRADUATING CLASS of Trinity Nursery School recently honored their children's teachers, Mrs. Nancy Higgins and Mrs. Edith Pillarella at a dinner held at the Castle Inn, Dallas. Mrs. Higgins and Mrs. Pillarella were honored with corsages, crystal bowls and tee-shirts featuring original pictures drawn by all the children.

THE WORKING CONDITIONS of women at the Pennsylvania State University are being studied by a special committee appointed by University president Bryce Jordan.

Those who attended a recent hearing on this subject at Penn State Wilkes-Barre Campus are students Annette Stefanovich, Ann Kutyna, Lori Powell and Mary Lou Dempsey. Also attending were Helen Stager, Karen Berlew, Priscilla Allison, Liz Ehrich, Lou Fabian, Wallis Maniskas, Patty O'Neill, Melody Menges and Janet Williamson.
