Back Mountain on the move

CINDY KRAUSE was honored at a "baby's shower" given by her mother and aunt at the home of her mother, Connie Dymond in Beaumont. The lady in waiting is expecting twins in August and we are all anxiously awaiting their arrivals.

Cindy is employed at the pharmacy department at Stapinski's. She used to be the cute little blonde, but now she's the cute big blonde! About 30 friends and family members were on hand to enjoy the outdoor shower and help "equip" the babies.

She received everything in two's, it was so neat. Two high chairs, two car seats, etc. Good luck Cindy, I hope patience comes in two's for you too!

JIM DAVIS, owner of Jedidia's Restaurant in Dallas, is a pretty nice guy, I'm told. One of his regular customers Millie happened to stop me the other day and she just expressed how much of a joy it is to eat there and talk with him. I think when a businessman comes across so well to his customers that it makes their day, he should know about it. You're a nice guy, Jim Davis.

LORRAINE HOZEMPA of Midland Drive, Dallas is a patient in Wilkes-Barre General Hospital. Lorraine is having a great deal of back discomfort and she is in traction. Our get well wishes go out to her, please hurry and get well soon.

Lorraine is the mother of Diane Bryant, owner of Great Beginnings Fitness Center and she'll be proud to know also that her daughter and members of her gym have jointly raised $882.50 for "Jerry's Kids", the Muscular Dystrophy campaign. Diane will present the check on TV during the Labor Day weekend telethon. That's a lot of money for a first time Aerobic-A-Thon.

FRANK SAVAGE, son of Frank and Alice Savage, spent the Memorial Day weekend visiting with his parents, Frank now resides in Texas so it was great time of fun and reminiscing for the family. They spent a lot of time golfing, their favorite sport, and just enjoying the time together.

GOODY AND LOUISE HILBERT of Beaumont spent three weeks touring and sightseeing during a leisurely drive to Dallas, Texas; Memphis, Tennessee; and Columbus, Ohio. The Hilberts enjoyed the guided tour through the Elvis Presley Mansion and Estate. It was really the highlight of the trip — like going through the years of Elvis' life in memoirs. A very beautiful and interesting place to see. They also enjoyed the Gathenburg

Shops in Tennessee. In Texas, they visited South Fork where "Dallas" is filmed. They were quite impressed with the beautiful grounds and decor of South Fork, the outside setting was beautiful but as much as beauty as was seen outside, was equally disappointing on the inside. The home we see on TV that looks so glamorous is actually very small rooms and not at all what one expects in reality.

The last leg of their trip was visiting Goody's sister in Columbus, Ohio, then on home. In three weeks of travelling, they had only two days of rain.

BOB AND PET CARTIER of Demunds Road, Dallas, did a little traveling last week also. The Cartiers were off to Vermont to visit a few days bring Bob's father back home with them where he'll spend a few weeks enjoying his family here in Dallas.

MR. AND MRS. ELLIS WEED of Haddonfield Hills, Dallas, are done traveling for a few months. The Weeds spent the winter months in Florida and it's good to see them around the neighborhood again. Welcome back.

GOOD LUCK to the Lehman graduates.

Fire Co. visited

The pre-school children of Sandy Beach Nursery visited the Daniel C. Roberts Fire Co., Harveys Lake. Clarence Hogan, Fire Chief, conducted the tour. The three and four year olds were allowed to view the inside of the ambulance. The different uses of the fire fighting equipment and the trucks were explained so the children could better understand the operation of the fire department. Blowing the horn, handling the hoses, and experiencing what it feels like to put on a gas mask were the highlights of the trip. Mrs. Charles Austin, teacher, stated the youngsters were delighted when they were presented with red fireman hats and coloring books. Shown here are the children who were on the tour: Clay Cadwalader, Kara Cadwalader, Kayce Boback, Janell Bryant, Mark Kapral, Paul Kapral, Eric Pimm, Michael Kostrobala, Jason Murphy, Seth Moyer, Jesse Meador, Charity Andres, Jennifer Frank, Joey Maskalis, Richard Patton, Neena Patton, April Pahler, Troy Shafer, Tom Beans, Rebecca Kaufman, Lee Ann Cobleigh, Bobby Baird, Albert Gultus, Genie Gregus, Ricky Blaine, Rhonda Forster, Sarah Race, Jason Lyons. The spring semester will end this week when a graduation program will be presented. A summer day camp program will be held in June and July. Class will resume in September, and registration is now being taken.

Lassale.
Because quiet elegance is his style.

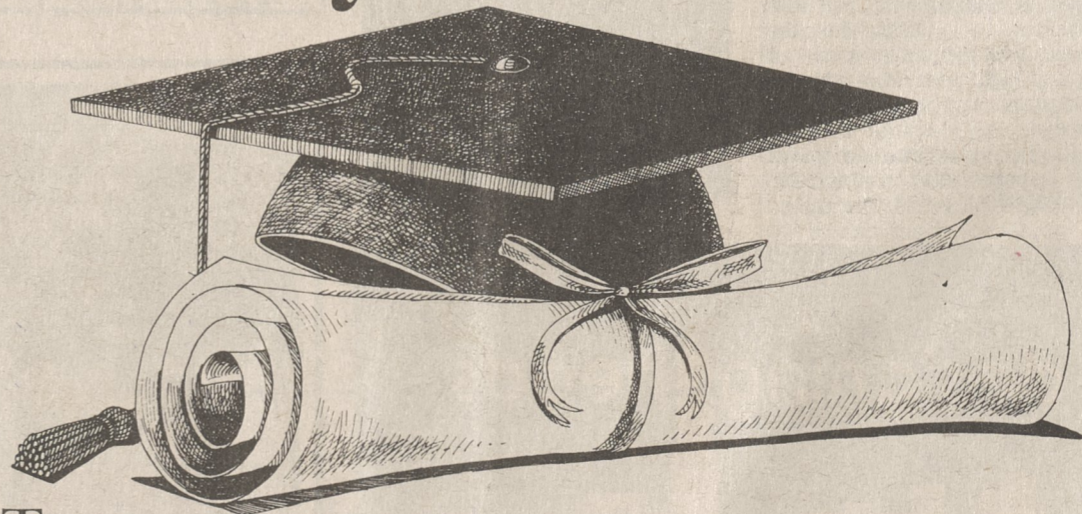

A remarkably thin profile in a deliberately simple design. The richness is in the gleam of gold-tone. In that Lassale perfection of finish that can't be matched. In the luxury of commanding the highest quartz performance. A gift par excellence, par elegance. Lassale. The heritage is obvious.
