THE GREATER WILKES-BARRE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE is preparing an official send-off for Durland Edwards and "The Spirit of Wilkes-Barre" from Public Square. The official Public Square send-off ceremony, scheduled to begin at 10 a.m. on June 14, 1986, will include good luck and best wishes from the Wilkes-Barre City Mayor, Thomas V. McLaughlin, officers of the Chamber of Commerce, and Msgr. Andrew J. McGowan.

The World Champion Hanover Area High School Cheerleaders will also be a part of the ceremonies.

The Chamber of Commerce encourages all Wilkes-Barre area residents to join in the ceremonies on Public Square to show our community support for Durland Edwards and his crew of "The Spirit of Wilkes-Barre," which is leaving for California to prepare for competition in the Great American Race coming to Wilkes-Barre on July 4.

THE MEADOWS NURSING CENTER AUXILIARY will hold its Second Annual Flea Market on Saturday, June 14 on the grounds of the Nursing Center, 55 West Center Hill Road, Dallas, from 9 a.m. - 4 p.m.

As June 14 is Flag Day the market will be opened with a traditional flag ceremony. Many vendors displaying a variety of items including antiques, crafts, brick-a-brac and collectibles will be on hand with face painting and pick-a-pocket clowns to interest the children. As a public service feature, Back Mountain Kiwanis will offer free finger printing of children and Mercy Wellness Center will be on hand from 1-3 p.m. for blood pressure screening.

There will be free parking on the grounds. Lunch will be available featuring wimpies and hot dogs with

THE NEWLY ELECTED MEMBERS of the executive committee of the Penn State/Wilkes-Barre Alumni Association say there is still time to register for this Saturday's (June 14) Alumni Family Reunion to be held at the campus in Lehman. Alumni living as far away as North Carolina have already signed up for the day of fun and games.

The day will start with registration at 10:30 a.m. at the Student Commons. A number of faculty mini-workshops will be held from 11-1:30. Battle of the Majors games competition will run from 2-4, the band "Just Us" will play from 4-8 p.m. Food and beverages will be provided at a cost of $2 per person and $5 per family.

Those still wishing to attend may call Marianne Tucker Puhalla the campus University Relations Office at 675-9291 for information.

Sunday, / June 15

BOB COLE will be featured guest speaker at Dallas Baptist Church on Sunday, June 15. For many years, Mr. Cole gambled professionally and was portrayed by Robert Redford in the major motion picture, "The Sting."

On Saturday, June 14, he will speak at the Chase Correctional Institution. Before the service at Dallas Church, he is addressing guests at the annual Father's Day Breakfast sponsored by the Wyoming Valley Federation of Men's Bible Classes in cooperation with the Luzerne County Sunday School Association.

The public is invited to the worship service at 11 a.m. The church is located on Route 415, Idetown. Pastor of Dallas Baptist Church is David R. Penley.

Monday, / June 16

NESBITT MEMORIAL HOSPITAL is currently seeking volunteers to serve as supervisors for the summer candy striper program. The upcoming session will be held from June 16 through August 17.

Candy striper supervisors offer guidance to candy strippers and assistance to various hospital departments and nursing units in scheduling and coordinating the program. Volunteer hours for supervisors are flexible, and complete training is provided. The candy striper program is under the auspices of the Nesbitt Memorial Hospital Auxiliary, and Paula Denisco serves as Chairman of the program.

For more information, please contact the hospital's Community Relations Department, 288-1411 ext. 4025.

Tuesday, / June 17
