Complete program

PSU members honored by club

Two Penn State Wilkes-Barre staff members were honored by the campus Circle K Club for contributing the most to the welfare of the student body at a recent awards banquet.

Recipient of the Clyde Birth Memorial Award for Fall, 1985 was John R. Murphy of Dallas, Director of Student Programs and Services. For Spring 1986, the recipient was the late Fran Brown, of Dallas, receptionist at the campus for the past 14 years, who died from injuries suffered in a recent car accident.

The Birth Memorial Award was established by the Penn State Wilkes-Barre Circle K in memory of Mr. Clyde Birth, past president of Circle K's sponsor, the Dallas Kiwanis Club.
