

JIM EGLISKIS

Egliskis receives award

Jim Egliskis, son of Barbara May, of Beaumont, was recently presented with a special Scouting award during the Penn Mountains Council of the Boy Scouts of America annual "Friends of Scouting" fund-raising dinner held at the Genetti Best Western Motor Inn in Wilkes-Barre.

Egliskis, 17, had earned all the merit badges there are in Scouting so local scouting officials made up an award, called the "Super Eagle" award, especially for him and made the presentation during the dinner.

Egliskis became an Eagle Scout in 1983, having earned 21 merit gadget and completing a public service project. The Back Mountain resident has now earned 118 Scouting merit badge, one more than Scouting currently offers since one of the badges was eliminated after he earned it.

Currently employed as a photographer for the Sunday Independent, Egliskis is the first in the Penn Mountain's Council history to earn all the Scouting merit badges.
