Exhibit underway

The Cider Painters of America are currently exhibiting over 300 miniature paintings at the Art Gallery on the College Misericordia campus in Dallas. One of the award winners is Young Chang of Dallas who received the Sister Mary Carl Kittell Award for Excellence. The cash prize was donated by artist Hal Moore of Columbia, S.C. The exhibit will run until July 17 each weekday, 9-12 a.m. and 1-4 p.m., and on Sundays from 1-4 p.m. Admission is free of charge. Shown are, from left, Sister Mary Carl Kittell, RSM, Art Gallery assistant director; artist Young Chang; Marilyn Webster, Art Gallery director; Sue Hand, national coordinator for Cider Painters of America.

Irem Potentate's Ball planned for July 19

The Potentate's Ball, which has been named "Illustrious Sir Jim's Circus Fantasy" considered by Nobles of Irem Temple to be the outstanding social event of the year, will be held in the pavilion of Irem Temple Country Club, Dallas, on Saturday, July 19.

Illustrious Potentate James O. Brokenshire, has appointed Nobles Hugh E. Williams, Jr. and Donald J. Berry as general chairmen with Nobles Robert Emery, Robert T. Farrell, William A. McHenry, and Milan W. Shepherd as co-chairmen. Christopher Samsel, age 4, son of Mr. and Mrs. Troy Samsel, Berwick, a patient at the Philadelphia Shriners Orthopaedic Crippled Childrens Hospital, will be Honorary Chairman.

One of the highlights of the evening will be the grand entrance of Potentate Brokenshire and his Lady Mary Ann at 9 p.m. After being escorted to the stage by his Chief Aide, Noble Wilbur I. Thomas, they will welcome members of Irem's Divan, Past Potentates of Irem, visiting dignitaries of other Shrine Temples, their ladies, and the Right Worshipful Grand Master of Free and Accepted Masons of Pennsylvania, Brother Carl W. Stenberg, Jr., and his lady.

A social hour will start at 5 p.m. Dinner at 6 p.m., in the Terrace and Main Dining rooms will precede the gala affair. Reservations will be limited to the first 300 persons. The affair is open to the general Nobility and their guests. Admission to the ball itself, which will be on the pavilion, will be by Fez and is open to the general Nobility and their guests. Prior to the Grand Entrance, Jaffa's Temple Calloped Unit will entertain on the pavilion from 7 p.m. to 8 p.m. Irem's String Band, under the direction of Noble H. Dean Balcomb will present a concert from 8 p.m. to 9 p.m. Noble Lee Vincent will provide the music for dancing.

Bus inspection slated

The Pennsylvania State Police of Troop P Wyoming will conduct their annual school bus inspections for busses serving the Dallas and Lake-Lehman School Districts in August.

The Lake-Lehman School District busses, including the Sutton and McManus busses will be inspected on Wednesday, August 13, from 8:30 a.m. to 2 p.m.

The Dallas School District busses, operated by the Emanuel Bus Co. will be inspected on Thursday, August 14, from 8:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. and on Tuesday, August 19, from 8:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m.

The state police are requesting school bus owners and mechanics to check their busses for faulty equipment and correct any problems prior to the inspections.

Anyone having any questions concerning school busses should contact either Trooper Russell G. Bigus or Trooper Truman Brandt, State Police Inspection Supervisors, at 826-5460.

Vietnam medals now available

U.S. Rep. Bob Edgar (PA-7) announced today that the Vietnam Veterans National Medal is now available for purchase. Rep. Edgar, a member of the House Veterans Affairs Committee for 12 years, said the medal was commissioned by Congress to honor those who served so bravely in the Vietnam War, and to commemorate, in the words of the medal, "those men and women who gave of themselves."

The medal, which depicts three young soldiers jumping from a helicopter over a raised relief of Vietnam, is cast in solid bronze and comes in two sizes. A 1.5 inch diameter size medal sells for $2 over the counter and for $2.25 by mail. A three-inch diameter model sells for $15 over the counter and $16 by mail.

The medals may be purchased directly from the U.S. Mint Sales Offices at 6th and Market Streets in Philadelphia (215-595-7350) or by mail from: The US Mint (medals), Box 500, Philadelphia, PA 19105.

Wednesday, / July 9

THE CHILDREN'S PLAY "Androcles and the Lion" will be performed July 9-12 as the second production of the King's College Summer Theatre Festival.

Performances will be at 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. on July 9 and 10, 10 a.m., 1 p.m., 7 p.m. on July 11 and 1 p.m. and 3 p.m. on July 12. Admission will be $1.50. Reservations can be obtained by contacting the King's College Box Office at 826-5825 weekdays from noon to 8 p.m. and Saturdays and Sundays from noon to 5 p.m.

Based on one of Aesop's fables, "Androcles and the Lion" revolves around the adventures of Androcles, a Roman slave. After escaping from his master, Androcles aids a lion he meets in the forest. When Androcles is later re-captured, the lion has an opportunity to repay the favor.

The play will be directed by M. Sheileen Godwin, daughter of Gerald Godwin, associate professor of theatre at King's.
