

Women honored

Area women honored at event

Five area women and one local service organization were honored as leaders in the community at the recent Third Annual Luzerne County Women's Conference held at the campus of Penn State Wilkes-Barre. They received the 1986 Pathfinder's Award, which each year is awarded to county residents or organizations for having paved new ground for women in the areas of politics, business, community endeavors, education and the arts. This year's awards honored women in education.

This year's six recipients are: Madge Benovitz of Kingston, who is the first woman from Luzerne County to serve on the National Association of State Boards of Education - Government Affairs Committee from 1984-85 and presently serves on the Board of Directors.

Patricia Davis, of Dallas, the first woman to chair the Wilkes College Board of Trustees. She was elected to the office in May, 1984 after serving on the Wilkes Board since 1976.

Nancy Noonan, of Forty Fort, who has served as president of the Pennsylvania State Education Association since 1983. Prior to this she was PSEA vice-president from 1978-1983.

Susan Sordoni, of Harveys Lake, the first lay person elected as Chairperson of the Board of College Misericordia, 1979-1980. Prior to this, she served on the College's Board from 1974-1983.

Anne Vernon, retiring Director of Family Service Association and one of the first two women elected to the Dallas Area School Board, and the only woman to serve as the Dallas school Board President.

The Negro Women's Community League, which established a scholarship fund 35 years ago to encourage the pursuit of education in the black community. Each year the League presents two scholarships to a local young man and woman who has excelled scholastically. Joyce Truesdale Davis has headed the effort.

Area accidents reported

A Noxen man escaped serious injury early Friday morning after the car he was driving went down an embankment and burst into flames in Dallas township.

According to reports, David P. Weber, RD 1, Box 145, Noxen, was traveling north on Rt. 309 when he crossed the intersection at Woodlawn avenue, crossed the center lane into the south bound lane, and went off the berm of the road over a 75 foot embankment. The vehicle caught fire in the engine compartment and spread to the rest of the front end. Police said Weber was out of his 1976 Toyota Celica when they arrived and was not seriously hurt. Weber said he fell asleep and didn't recall what happened.

No persons were injured in a two-car crash that took place on Rt. 309 at the Sago Street intersection in Dallas Township.

Police reports indicate that Stephen R. Finn, Alderson Road, RD 2, Harveys Lake, was pulling out of Sago Street, north, onto Rt. 309 where he did not see a car driven by Barbara A. Scavone, 17 Hillcrest Dr, New Goss Manor, traveling south. Scavone said she could see Finn's 1981 Dodge Sedan coming out of Sago Street and blew her horn, but was unable to avoid striking the Finn vehicle.

Fat is not good for you

Do you want to lose weight to look better, feel better, improve your health or fit into your clothes? You can lose weight safely and it may even be easier than you think.

Too much fat in our diets can help make us overweight and unhealthy. The average person in this country eats the equivalent of 11 tablespoons of fat every day! Cutting down on the fat you eat can be done by making some simple changes in your eating habits.

The first step is to cut down on your use of butter and margarine - they are 100 percent fat and have 100 calories for every tablespoon. Try herbs and spices instead of butter on vegetables.
