Around town

BEST WISHES to Veronica and Mike Farinola and their daughters Tarel, Emilyn and Corrine as they prepare to relocate in the Philadelphia area.

The Farinolas have been very active in our community and have volunteered many hours of their time.

Veronica, a tireless worker for the American Cancer Society, managed the annual daffodil sale in our area. She has just concluded her duties as

Story Lady at the JOAN Memorial Library, KINGSBURY. For her final story hour, Veronica added a special treat - homemade cookies for the children to enjoy.

THIS SUMMER has been a rainy one. It seems at least two days a week, it rains all day long. Keeping younger children entertained is pretty difficult when it has rained several days in a row. Homemade play dough is an entertaining way to spend a gloomy afternoon.

The recipe, which makes enough for four children, follows: Mix 1 1/2 cups flour, 3/4 cups salt, 1/2 cups cool water, 1 1/2 teaspoon cream of tartar, 3/4 teaspoon oil and five drops of food coloring. Cook on medium heat, stirring constantly until too thick to stir. Remove from pan to cool. When cool, store in plastic bag.

If you have older children, they may enjoy making this play dough themselves, with a little supervision from Mom.

IF YOU WOULD LIKE TO OWN a 1986 BMW 325, here is your chance. The Association for Retarded Citizens of Luzerne County is selling raffle tickets for this car and only 300 will be sold.

All proceeds will be used to benefit mentally retarded adults and children in Luzerne County. The BMW was made available through the cooperation of Wyoming Valley Motors.

Tickets may be purchased by calling the Wilkes-Barre ARC office, Kirby Health Center.

NOW THAT I AM HOME in the mornings, I enjoy watching Hour Magazine on Channel 16. The cooking section is very interesting, with the guest of the day usually preparing the recipe of the day.

Last week Abigail Van Buren, Dear Abby, was woman of the hour. She prepared a simple chocolate mousse that sounded so good I just had to try it. (We are definitely a family of chocoholics.) It proved to be truly delicious, but a word of caution - eat a very small portion since this Chocolate Mousse is very, very rich.

To prepare Chocolate Mousse, ala Dear Abby - Whipe one pint of heavy cream until stiff, add 1/3 cup of Hershey's cocoa and 2 cups fudge ice cream topping. Blend very well and chill. Just delicious!

SPECIAL WISHES for much happiness to Ann Marie and Gregory Walter who were married recently in St. Therese's Church, Shavertown. Msgr. Joseph P. Gilling performed the double ring ceremony.

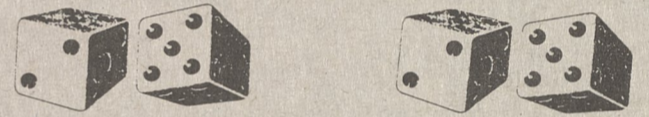

Ann Marie is the daughter of Grace Fielding and the late Sidney Fielding, Huntsville. A graduate of Lake-Lehman High School and College Misericordia with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Nursing, she is employed as the Assistant Head Nurse of the Infant Transitional Unit at the Children's Hospital of Philadelphia.

Gregory, son of Mrs. Stephen L. Walter, Sr. and the late Stephen L. Walter Sr., Camden, N.J., is a graduate of Woodrow Wilson High School and Rutgers University, Camden, with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Nursing. He is employed on the Clinical Research Center at the Hospital of the University of Philadelphia.

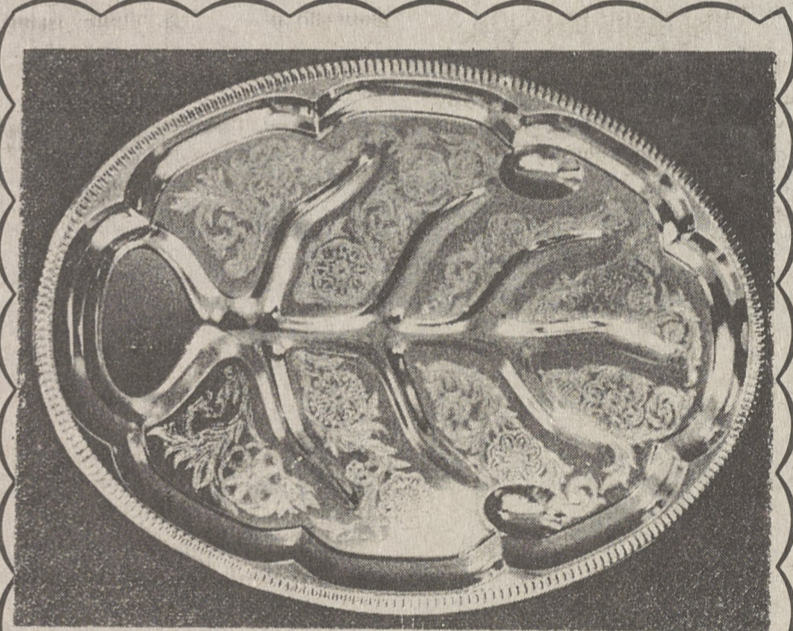

Following a wedding trip to Bermuda, the Walters are residing in the Chestnut Hill section of Philadelphia.
