Thursday, / July 31

THE SHAVERTOWN VOLUNTEER FIRE COMPANY will hold its annual Auction-Bazaar on July 31, August 1 and August 2. The auction will start at 6 p.m. on July 31 and on August 1. On August 2, there will be a parade beginning at 6:30 p.m.

Following the parade, there will be live music with the "Touch of Country" band at 8 p.m.

For further information, contact any fireman or ladies auxiliary member.

Friday, / August 1

"WILDLIFE MANAGEMENT" will be theme for free interpretive programs the weekend of August 1.

On Saturday, August 2, at 2 p.m., the film "Animal Populations: Nature's Checks and Balances" will be shown. This film looks at such things as climate, food supply, predation and disease, all critical factors that affect the composition of communities. Following the film, a simulation game will show how many deer can survive in a herd's home range based on food availability and competition.

On Sunday, August 3, at 2 p.m., Ed Gdosky, Game Protector for the Pennsylvania Game Commission, will explain his role in wildlife management. Rabies, a topic of growing concern, will also be discussed. Gdosky has been with the Game Commission for 30 years and recently received the Outstanding Fish and Wildlife Law Enforcement Officer Award for Pennsylvania.

The public is invited to take advantage of these free public programs. All programs will meet at the Environmental Information Bulletin Board near the front of the boat rental parking area.

Sunday, / August 3

DALLAS BAPTIST CHURCH will present Family Night on Sunday, August 3, at 7 p.m.

This special service will conclude eight days of Vacation Bible School for children. Featured as special guest will be Linda LaBar, Christian ventriloquist. Children will share what they have learned during Vacation Bible School with a special program.

A slide presentation will highlight the activities of the preschool department. Other children's classes will share their Bible School experiences through singing and Bible verses. First and second graders will present a song through sign language. Joye Pimm, Vacation Bible School director, will recognize teachers and classes and attendance certificates will be awarded.

The church is located on Route 415, Idetown. Pastor is David Penley.

Next week

THE FALLS VOLUNTEER HOSE & AMBULANCE CO. will hold its annual picnic August 8 and 9.

The picnic will begin on Friday with the Fireman's Parade at 7 p.m. followed by The Fling-A-Thing Dance Party with Paul Ciliberto.

Saturday features the Keating Brothers Rock Duo. Capping off the evening will be a fireworks display.

Surgery class is offered

Wilkes-Barre General Hospital offers a pre-surgical class on an ongoing basis for patients scheduled for surgery at General and their family members. The class prepares patients for surgery by increasing their understanding of the overall care plan before and after the operation. It is also helpful to parents of children scheduled for surgery at Wilkes-Barre General Hospital.

The class is free of charge and is coordinated by Kathy Ashton, RN, a critical care staff nurse. She is assisted during the class by a registered nurse from the Surgical Services Department.

For more information about the class schedule, call General's Nursing Services Department at 829-8111, extension 2205 or 3048. Mrs. Ashton is also available for speaking engagements with area organizations and groups.
