PSU athletes cited

Two Penn State Wilkes-Barre athletes were cited for outstanding athletic and academic performances at a recent student awards banquet. Shown left is Jack Monick, Athletic Director, presenting the 1986 H. Edward Kaminski Award to Earl Weidner, pitcher and short-stop for the campus baseball team. The Kaminski Award is presented each year to the athlete who demonstrated top academic, athletic and leadership qualities, and was established by Mrs. Betty Kaminski in honor of her late husband who graduated from the Wilkes-Barre campus in 1974. Weidner, a 1985 graduate of Lake-Lehman High School, is the son of Donald and Shirley Weidner, of Lehman and is majoring in nursing. On the right, Vince DeGuisto, is shown receiving the Jack Kolesar Award from Kolesar, professor of engineering at the Penn State Wilkes-Barre campus. Each year Kolesar honors the student who has most distinguished himself in the area of athletic accomplishment. DeGuisto, an engineering major who maintained a 2.84 grade point average, played second base for the Penn State Wilkes-Barre Baseball team. He is a 1985 graduate of Coughlin High School and is the son of Vincent and Mary DeGuisto of Wilkes-Barre.

Hargrove takes his time at bat

By STEVE SVETOVICH
Special to The Dallas Post

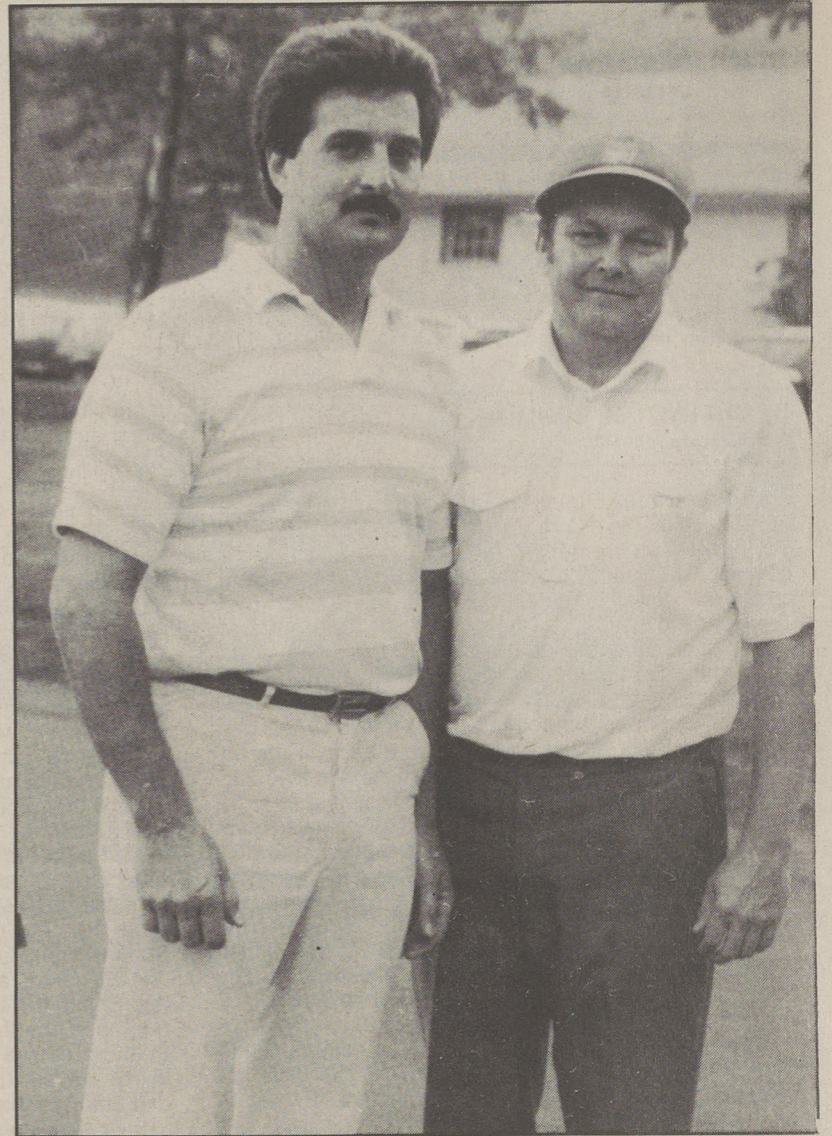

I recently met Mike Hargrove, former American League Rookie of the Year at the Hilton at Lackawanna Station in Scranton. Hargrove, a 13 year major league veteran, is known throughout the American League as "The Human Rain Delay" because of all of the time he takes between pitches when he is hitting.

"It's not an act. I think I've cut down a lot on what I've done at the plate, but it's something I've done because I think that the key to doing everything well is concentration and there are just certain things I need to get out of the way to be able to concentrate. One being that I hate to have creases in my batting glove, so really it all started with that and then it all snowballed. It's nothing designed to bother people or put on a show," commented the Texan who has spent the last seven seasons with the Cleveland Indians but is currently trying to win a job with the Oakland A's as a free-agent.

Hargrove further stated, "I found also that it bothers certain pitchers. If they are out there mad at me because I'm doing that, then they are not doing their jobs, so that's to my advantage. It bugs Dave Stieb to death. I admit it's a trademark."

Hargrove is a career .290 hitter and has batted over .300 six times including a .323 mark in his 1974 Rookie of the Year season with the Texas Rangers.
