

MR. AND MRS. GREGORY R. WALTER

Wed in Shavertown

Miss Ann Marie Fielding, daughter of Mrs. Sidney Fielding and the late Sidney Fielding, Huntsville, and Gregory R. Walter, son of Mrs. Stephen L. Walter, Sr. and the late Stephen L. Walter, Camden, New Jersey, were recently wed in St. Therese's Church, Shavertown.

Monsignor Joseph P. Gilgallon performed the double ring ceremony. The bride was escorted down the aisle by her uncle, Ronald Fielding, Sr.

Mrs. Elizabeth Oliver, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Ann E. Walter, sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. Barbara Anglestein; and Miss Barbara Murray. Junior bridesmaid was Miss Kristen Rose, cousin of the bride. Flower girl was Miss Marie Manzoni, godchild of the bride.

Michael Walter, Sr., brother of the bridegroom was best man. Ushers were Robert Walter, brother of the bridegroom; Michael Anglestein; and Stephen Thompson. Junior usher was Michael Walter, Jr., nephew of the bridegroom. Ringbearer was Dennis Lee, godson of the bride.

An evening cocktail hour and reception was held at Genetti Motor Inn, Wilkes-Barre.

A rehearsal dinner, hosted by the bridegroom's mother, was held at the Castle Inn, Dallas.

The bride was honored at a bridal shower at the Genetti Motor Inn given by Mrs. Elizabeth Oliver, sister of the bride. She was also honored at a bridal shower given by her co-workers at the home of Mrs. Lisa Wetzel, Philadelphia.

Mrs. Walter is a graduate of Lake-Lehman High School and College Misericordia with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Nursing. She is employed as the Assistant Head Nurse of the Infant Transitional Unit at the Childrens Hospital of Philadelphia.

Mr. Walter is a graduate of Woodrow Wilson High School and Rutgers University, Camden, with a Bachelor of Science degree in Nursing. He is employed on the Clinical Research Center at the Hospital of The University of Pennsylvania.

Following a honeymoon in Bermuda, the couple was honored at an open house given by the bridegroom's mother; aunt, Mrs. Eva Hansen; and sister-in-law, Mrs. Sandie Walter.

The couple will reside in the Chestnut Hill section of Philadelphia.

People in the news

TWENTY-THREE LOCAL RESIDENTS are among 37 students currently earning college credits prior to beginning their freshman year of study through the College Entry Program at King's College.

The program, open to students at a college or university in the fall, is designed to allow students an opportunity to either refine basic skills needed in their freshman year of study or to accelerate their studies by completing courses in the summer, enabling them to take a reduced course load while they adjust to the academic demands of college.

Students enrolled in the program are participating in classes in the areas of critical thinking, writing, math, study, skills, quantitative reasoning and theatre. Upon the successful completion of each class, students will earn three college credits that may be applied to their core or elective requirements at the college or university they will attend in the fall. Students may participate in a maximum of two classes during the program which began July 1 and will end August 1.

Back Mountain residents participating in the College Entry Program are Donald Buzinkai, Shavertown; Paul Dollard, Dallas; James Farrell, Dallas; Guy Llewellyn, Shavertown and John Randolph, Dallas.

JAMES M. PRICE, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arlington Price of 213 Holly St., Trucksville, enlisted in the United States Air Force recently, according to SSgt. Mike Bechak, Air Force Recruiter for the Wilkes-Barre area.
