LIU seeks volunteers

The Luzerne Intermediate Unit 18 is seeking volunteers to act as surrogate parents for handicapped children.

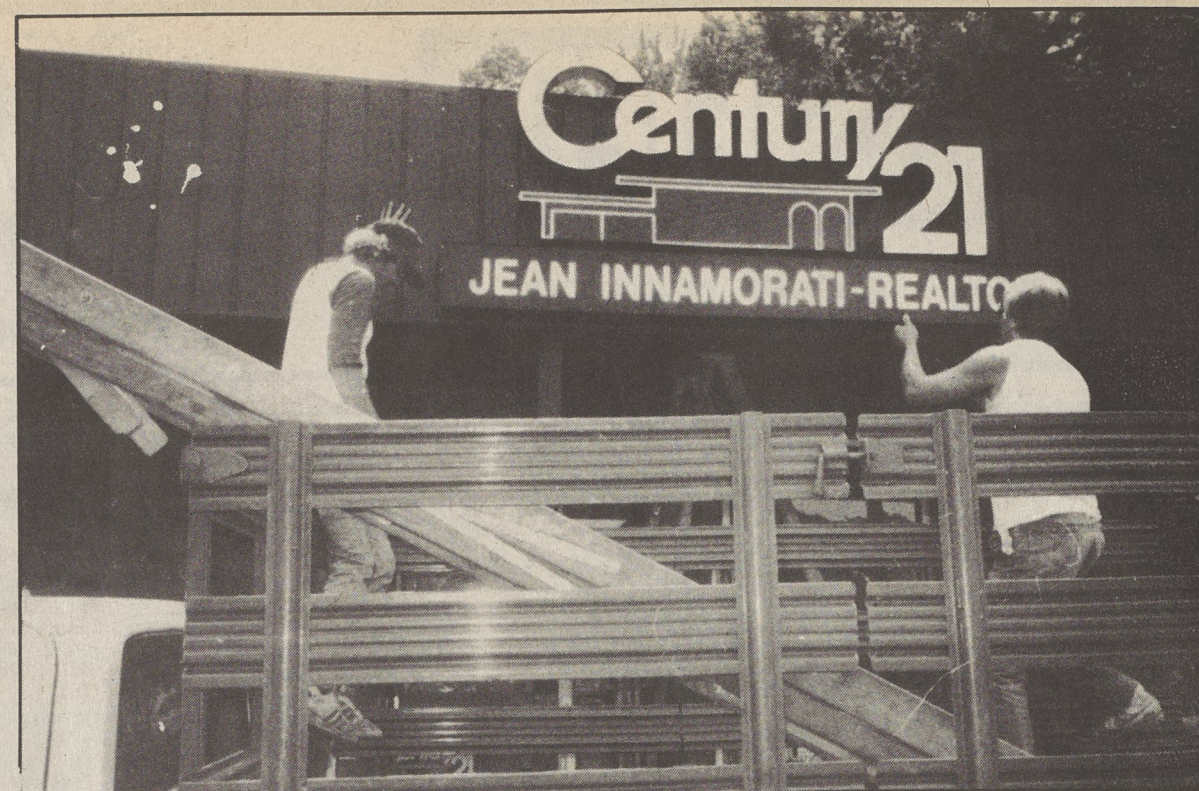

The surrogate parents will be trained to guide their children and make educational decisions for them. The responsibilities of these volunteers will include the following: Acting in place of a parent in matters concerning the child's educational program by attending educational planning program conferences; becoming familiar with the appropriate procedures for due process; and receiving notices concerning the evaluation and placement of the students.

The surrogate parent volunteers must be willing and able to make themselves available for in-service training. This training will include becoming familiar with the child and his or her handicap in addition to the types and nature of special education programs.

In order to qualify as a surrogate parent, the volunteers must be at least 18 years of age and of good character. They must possess reasonable abilities to make decisions regarding the students educational needs and desire to acquaint themselves with the handicapped child.

Volunteers must not have a vested interest, and can not be currently employed by an agency responsible for the education or care of the child.

Any qualified person who is interested in volunteering as a surrogate parent can contact in writing or call Mr. Jeffrey D. Katra, School Psychologist, Luzerne Intermediate Unit 18, 368 Tioga Ave., Kingston, PA 18704, 283-1178 for details.

Dallas Post/John Holinski

Now, it's official!
Bobby Lewis, left, and Jim Dourand, right, employees of the Fieseler Neon Sign Co., Wilkes-Barre, put the finishing touches on a new sign at the Century 21 Real Estate Agency in the 309-415 Plaza, Dallas. Jean Innamorati, who previously served as Associate Broker of the real estate franchise, is the new proprietor at the Dallas location.

AISE seeks host families for students

American Intercultural Student Exchange is a non-profit high school exchange student program urgently seeking host families for three European high school students between the ages of 16 and 18 who would arrive mid-August for the 1986-87 school year.

They attend the local high school and share their culture while learning our American culture. Students are covered by a comprehensive insurance policy, have their own spending money, and live as a family member while here.

Host families are entitled to a $50-month tax deduction while their students are here. Please help make a dream come true for a teenager from another part of the world while your family enjoys an exciting cultural adventure.

Please call the State Coordinator at 215-797-6494 or toll free 1-800-SIBLING for more information.
