

Check presented

Wilkes-Barre General Hospital's Auxiliary recently presented the hospital with a $175,000 check as its second payment on a four-year, $500,000 pledge. Auxiliary members have now raised 70 percent of the money pledged just two years ago and used to purchase new beds and furniture for patient rooms. Auxiliary President Lina Serpico presented the check to Hospital President Thomas P. Saxton following another fund-raising year. Auxiliary members sponsored the annual Starlight Ball, Card Party and Golf Tournament, along with the management of the Gift and Hospitality Shop and patient television service to help meet their commitment to the hospital. The Auxiliary expects to complete the pledge next year. Shown in the photo above, auxiliary president Lina Serpico, Trucksville, presents check to Hospital President Thomas Saxton.

Dallas resident is pageant runner-up

Counselors named

Misericordia names counselors

Daniel Albert, Mary Kutz and Sandra Long were recently appointed admissions counselors at College Misericordia, announced David Payne, dean of admissions.

The new counselors are part of the expanding admissions staff under the college's new enrollment management program. They will represent College Misericordia at public and private high schools, college fairs and other college information programs in the Mid-Atlantic region.

The counselors also provide data for high school guidance counselors, including news about scholarships, athletic grants-in-aid and other financial aid programs.

Daniel Albert of Hunlock Creek is a 1984 graduate of College Misericordia with a bachelor's degree in biology education. He has served as a substitute teacher in the Dallas, Lake-Lehman and Northwest School districts.

He has also instructed in the Adult Basic Education Program and in Project RISE at Luzerne County Community College. He will serve as the admissions area manager for New Jersey, Maryland, Delaware, Virginia and Washington, D.C.

Mary Kutz is a Wilkes College graduate with a bachelor's degree in psychology. Her involvement in numerous student activities led to her selection to Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.

Her responsibilities include Lackawanna County, the northern tier of Pennsylvania, New York including Long Island, and Connecticut.

A resident of Dallas, Ms. Kutz is a graduate of Dallas High School.

Sandra Long of Wilkes-Barre recently graduated from Wilkes College with a bachelor's degree in English. She was the recipient of the Humanities Award and selected to Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.

Ms. Long has worked as a tutor at the college's Writing Lab and as director of the Sky Lake Physically Handicapped Camp in Windsor, N.Y.

Ms. Long will be the area manager for Pennsylvania, including the metropolitan areas of Philadelphia and Pittsburgh.

Erving in a Utah Jazz uniform? That would be like stuffing hot dogs with lobster. Philadelphia has already lost Steve Carlton and Moses Malone; how much can a city take in one year?

THE PHILLIES are in second place, two games over .500. Chances are they'll hold on to second since the Expos have lost Hubie Brooks, who was having an MVP year, and Mike Fitzgerald, who was enjoying his best season in the majors.

LET ME SAY THIS NOW so there is no mistake. The Phillies are exactly one starting pitcher away from winning the NL East next year.

WISH LIST:
— The Pittsburgh Steelers go to the Super Bowl.
— The Chicago Bears lose five games this year.
— Buddy Ryan gets slugged in the mouth by Mike Ditka.

— West Virginia whips Penn State when they play November 1 at West Virginia.

— Penn State wins the National Championship, but loses the Lambert Trophy to WVU.

— The jury in the USFL-NFL case claims temporary insanity brought on by weeks of mind-altering boredom and increases the judgement for the USFL by $1,689,999,997.

Pallante to study law

Joseph T. Pallante of Shavertown, a recent graduate of College Misericordia, will attend the Catholic University School of Law, Washington, D.C. in the fall of 1986.

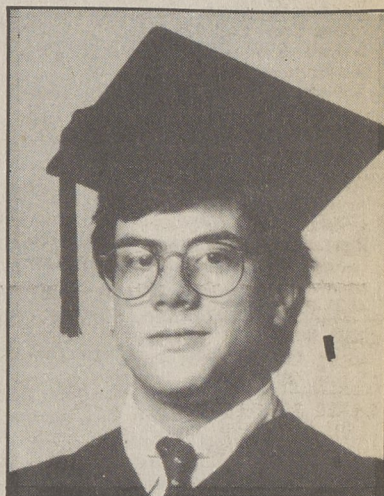

Mr. Pallante was awarded an Honors Bachelor's degree in Pre-Law, cum laude, and was the recipient of the Knights of Columbus Award for proficiency in history and the Gallagher-Santopolo Memorial Award for outstanding literary achievement.

Pallante published an "Operational Handbook" for the State Department of Public Welfare's Office of Hearings and Appeal, and published an article on U.S.-Chinese Relations, in "Honorus," a publication of College Misericordia's Honors Program.

During his college career, Pallante was a member of the National Catholic College Graduate Honor Society, National Honor Society of Colleges, Literary Honor Society, National Scholastic Honor Society and the Literary Club. He served as president of the Honors Association and the History-Pre-Law Club, and acted as Judicial Coordinator for Student Government.

He is the son of Dr. James Pallante, Academic Dean, and Joan Pallante, Assistant Professor, at College Misericordia.

Communications, and Personal Management merit badges. James Strange completed Basketry, Botany, Fish and Wildlife Management, Geology, Reptile Study, Cooking and Weather merit badges. Andy Yenchu was recognized for earning the Silver Hornaday Medal.

The speakers preceding the Eagle presentations stressed the unique achievement of these young men and the new Eagles duty to scouting, their community, and their church.

The speakers were Dr. Lee Williams, Vice-President for Program of the Scout Council, Dr. Kevin McGovern, Assistant Academic Dean of College Misericordia, and Fr. William Langan, Gate of Heaven Church. Congressman Paul Kanjorski presented the Eagle candidates with certificates of recognition from the Congress.

The new Scout Council Executive, Jerry Lupien also extended his congratulations to the Scouts for their individual achievement. Dr. Williams, the Scoutmaster of the Troop presented the Eagle Medals to the young mens' parents.

Each Scouts' mother pinned the medal on her son and in turn the Eagle Scouts presented Eagle pins to their parents. Al and Marsha Landis of Shavertown presented the award to Alan Landis Jr., Bob and Danette Kelley of Trucksville pinned the award on Nathan Kelley, Bob and Karen Skursky of Trucksville awarded the medal to Robert Skursky, Larry and Jane Griffin of Dallas pinned the medal on James Strange. Mr. Alan Landis Troop Committee Chairman then presented a plaque to Dr. Williams from the troop inscribed with the names of all the Eagle Scouts that Dr. Williams had "guided and inspired" to complete their Eagles. The ceremony closed with the Scoutmasters' benediction. A covered dish supper followed.

Nathan Kelley is a student at Dallas High School in the Gifted program. He is a member of the J.V. Wrestling team and the Forensic program. As an Explorer Scout he is Vice-President of his Post and a Junior Assistant Scoutmaster of his troop. He is a member of the Order of the Arrow. He has earned the World Conservation Award, the 50 mile Afloat Award, the 50 mile Afoot Award, several historic trail medals and a Certificate of Merit for Meritorious Action in Lifesaving.

As a Scout he earned the Red Cross Standard First Aid, CPR, and Basic Rescue Training Certificates. Nathan's Eagle project was helping the St. Vincent de Paul Soup Kitchen by running two food drives that collected over a 1,000 pounds of food, involving several hundred hours of contributed services by Nathan and his team of Scout Volunteers. Nathan is on the staff at Camp Acahela this summer.

Alan Landis will be a student at the Dallas High School in the Fall. As a student at the Dallas Junior High School he was extremely active in the audio visual program and aided many of the sports teams by taping their games and practices. Alan is active in many stage craft and theatrical activities in school and the community. He is also very active in community service to the Library Auction, the Fall Fair and other worthy charitable activities.

He has earned the 50 mile Afloat Award, and is a member of the Order of the Arrow. He has completed as a scout the Red Cross Standard First Aid, CPR, and Basic Rescue Training. He holds the certificate of Merit for Meritorious Action in Lifesaving. Alan's Eagle project involved repairing the building in which Gate of Heaven Church holds some its youth activities. Alan recruited workers, got materials and money donated, and led the repair effort. He and his team put in almost 400 hours of service in the project.

Robert Skursky is a student at Bishop O'Reilly High School. He is a member of the football team and Vice-President of his class. As an Explorer Scout, Bob is treasurer of his Post and Assistant Senior Patrol Leader of his troop. He has earned the 50 mile Afloat Award, several historic trail medals, and the Ad Altare Dei religious award.

As a Scout he earned the Red Cross Standard First Aid, CPR, and Basic Rescue Training Certificates. Bob's Eagle project was organizing volunteers, and then leading them to help prepare, serve and clean up after meals at the St. Vincent de Paul Soup Kitchen. Bob's team of 10 scouts did this five times and contributed several hundred hours of service by himself and his team of Scout volunteers. Bob is working this summer in Horticulture.

James Strange will be a student at Dallas High in the Fall. At Dallas Junior High James was an honor student, a member of the wrestling team, the Soccer team and the Student Council. As a Scout he is Senior Patrol Leader of his troop and has been awarded the 50 mile Afloat Award, several historic trail medals, the Order of the Arrow, the Reader's Digest Youth Leadership in America Award on the Council level, Ad Altare Dei Religious Award, the Certificate of Merit for Meritorious Action in Lifesaving and the World Conservation Award.

As a Scout he earned the Standard First Aid, CPR and Basic Rescue training certificates. James' Eagle project was to organize clean up and some repairs at the St. Vincent de Paul Soup Kitchen. James recruited a team of scouts and adults who contributed several hundred hours to the project. James is spending his summer as a staff member at Camp Acahela.
