Wilkes plans events

Plans are already underway for Wilkes College's 39th Annual Homecoming Weekend, which will take place Friday, Oct. 17 through Sunday, Oct. 19.

According to Anthony J. Shipula, '78 Director of Alumni Relations at the College, a Homecoming Committee was recently selected, and has already planned a full schedule of events.

Named as Chairman of the Committee was Jennifer Morgan, '74, of Pittston. Morgan holds a Bachelor's degree in Elementary Education from Wilkes College, and is employed as a first grade teacher in the Pittston Area School District.

Serving on Morgan's committee are: John and Christiana Baron, '75, '73; Jenny Centrella '74; Gina Davies '77; Betty DeCosmo '81; Dale DeRonde '62; Joanne Falck '70; James Ferris '56; Deborah Hargraves '76; Beverly Hiscox '58; Ann Marie Kopec '79; Andrea Petrask '69; Jean Pierkowski '71; Michelle Revitt '69; Ray Salsburg '71; Doris Saracino; Margaret Scholl '81; Robert Silve '69; Dr. Carl Urbanski '57; Stephen Urban-ski '85; John and Virginia Zikor, '69, '70; and Carl Zoolkoski '59.

This year's Homecoming activities will include the annual Alumni Golf Tournament on Friday, October 17, the Wilkes vs. Juniata football game and Alumni Open House on Saturday, Oct. 18, and a breakfast buffet and Annual Meeting of the Wilkes College Alumni Association on Sunday, Oct. 19.

Two commemorative events will also be featured this year. A dinner dance at The Woodlands on October 17 will honor the reunion classes of '36, '41, '46, '51, '56, '61, '66, '71, '76 and '81 and will pay special tribute to George Ralston, Dean of Student Affairs Emeritus and Special Assistant to Alumni Relations.

And on October 18, a special luncheon will celebrate the 50th Anniversary of the "Golden Colonels," members of the Class of 1936 of Bucknell University Junior College.

Further information on these and other activities for the 39th Annual Wilkes College Homecoming is available from the Office of Alumni Relations at 824-4651, ext. 325.

Arts show planned at PSU

An Arts and Crafts show, a children's ballet workshop and a Square dance will highlight the Arts at Hayfield Summer Festival II, Sunday, Aug. 17 at the Penn State Wilkes-Barre campus in Lehman. The public is invited to the day-long festivities which will run from noon until 8 p.m.

More than a dozen artists and craftsmen from across the state will have displays on exhibit from noon until 6 p.m. Among the displays already registered include stone-ware, basketry, stencils, appliques and hand crafts.

According to Candyce Fike, Arts at Hayfield President, the festival is designed for the whole family. "We have something for everyone. There will be continuous entertainment, games and activities for the children, and lots of good food and refreshments."

She adds, "It is the perfect way to spend a summer Sunday with your family.

A new feature at this year's Summer Festival will be a square dance featuring well-known caller Red Jones and his band. The square dance will be held from 6-8 p.m. at the campus Commons. A $1.00 donation will be collected at the door.

Arts at Hayfield is a non-profit organization, started three years ago to promote culture and the arts in the Back Mountain area. The membership is made up of members of the community, various cultural groups and members of the staff and faculty at Penn State Wilkes-Barre.

Among the events Arts at Hayfield has sponsored over the past two years include the annual Black Tie Ball, held in October at the Penn State Wilkes-Barre campus, a variety of concerts and theater presentations and a film series.
