Van raffled

The Penn State Club of the Wyoming Valley is helping celebrate Penn State Wilkes-Barre's 70th anniversary by chancing off a $20,000 customized Penn State van. Only 350 tickets will be sold, priced at $100 each. The drawing will be held at the Penn State Day anniversary celebration on Public Square, Wilkes-Barre, on Thursday, September 18. According to Committee Chairman Al Wasley, the van was customized by Celebrity Coach Inc. of Larksville and includes blue and white Nittany Lion detailing inside and out. Tickets may be purchased from any Penn State Club member. Shown, from left, are Penn State Club members, Donald Smith, Dr. John M. Manio, Atty. Michael Hudacek, Atty. Ed Hosey, club president; Irwin Sagenkahn, Jack Malarkey and David G. Stevens.

Enthusiasts invited to display work

Hobby arts and crafts enthusiasts are invited to exhibit items at the Luzerne County Fair scheduled for September 3-7 at the fairgrounds, Route 118, Dallas.

Premium booklets are available by either calling the fair office at 675-6448 or picking them up at the following locations: Back Mountain Lumber & Coal Co., Shavertown; Agway, Dallas; Penn State Seed Co., Forty Fort and Dallas; County Fair Crafts, Narrows Shopping Center, Kingston; Hillman Service Co., Kingston; Hilbert's Equipment and Welding, Dallas; and Pine Cone Drive-In, Shickshinny. Those who entered items last year will receive a booklet automatically.

As last year, entries will be on a pre-registration basis as set forth in the Pennsylvania State Fair guidelines. All entries must be grown, produced or made in Luzerne County or surrounding communities since the closing of the last fair.

Fees for entries are: 1 exhibit, $1; 2 to 5 exhibits, $2; 6 to 12 exhibits, $3. Additional fees are noted in the guidebook. There are no fees required for 4-H entries or student entries.

Thousands of dollars are awarded each year for arts and crafts, 4-H, livestock and this year, for the first time, horse entries.

All entries, except for perishable items, will be accepted on Tuesday, September 2, from 4 to 9 p.m. Perishables will be accepted on Thursday, September 4, from 9 to 11 a.m. Livestock entries are required at the fairgrounds by noon on Wednesday, September 3.

Deadline for arts and crafts and perishable items is Friday, August 22 and livestock Monday, August 25. Rita Welebob, Sweet Valley and Ayleen Landon, Dallas, will serve as chairman and co-chairman respectively.

Host families are needed

Families are urgently needed in this area to serve as hosts for high school students from Spain for the current school year. Sponsored by JUVENTUD Y CULTURA (Youth and Culture), these high school students have a good command of English, have their own spending money, and are fully insured.

Any family interested in this exciting cultural program is asked to call John Barno, 735-2143.
