Wednesday, / Sept. 3

Nesbitt Memorial Hospital is sponsoring an Arthritis Clinic on Wednesday, Sept. 3, from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the Nesbitt Medical Arts Building, 534 Wyoming Avenue, Kingston.

Dr. John Carey, a specialist in arthritis and rheumatology, conducts the program which provides arthritis patients with a complete physical examination and treatment plan. The results are forwarded to the patient's physician for consultation input and followup care.

Patients requiring orthopedic or corrective surgery or extensive physical therapy are tested with a multidisciplinary approach known as CORE (Combined Orthopedic and Rheumatologic Evaluation).

Patients, referred by their physician, must make an appointment with the Arthritis Clinic by calling Nesbitt's Outpatient Registration office at 288-1411, extension 4130, Monday through Friday, from 1 to 4 p.m.

Thursday, / Sept. 4

The Back Mountain Blood Council will sponsor a bloodmobile at the Shavertown United Methodist Church from noon to 6 p.m. All persons aged 17 through 65 in good health and weighing at least 110 pounds are urged to come and donate blood.

Friday, / Sept. 5

Harry Trebilcox, a music department faculty member at College Misericordia, will give a solo piano concert 8 p.m., in Walsh Auditorium on the Dallas campus.

Trebilcox will present works by Bach, Schumann, Chopin, Debussy and Liszt. The concert is open to the public, free of charge.

Trebilcox received bachelor of music and master of music degrees from the Eastman School, studying with the late Cecile Staub Genhart. As a Fulbright scholar, he earned the highest honors in piano from the Academy of Music in Vienna, Austria, where he studied with the late Wladyslaw Kedra. He is a faculty member at College Misericordia, a music critic for the Sunday Independent and director of music at the Trucksville United Methodist Church.

The Commerce Club has announced that Jeffrey K. Fox, Executive Director of Omni Health Plan, will be the guest speaker at noon at the Genetti's Best Western Motor Inn.

Fox's topic will be "The Positive Benefits of HMO's for Area Employers and Employees". The cost of the Commerce Club luncheon has been lowered to better accommodate Chamber members and their guests.

Sunday, / Sept. 7

The Board of Trustees of the Trucksville United Methodist Church have established an endowment fund. The fund will provide an opportunity for members and friends of the congregation to honor those who have been, or are, closely associated with the church, as well as provide a financial enrichment to the church program.

The Endowment Fund Book which includes the names of the current donors to the Fund and those who have been permanently remembered will be formally dedicated and placed in the Church Sanctuary during the Worship Service, Sept. 7 at 9:30 a.m.

Members of the Endowment Fund Committee include: Erik Dingle, Chairman; Dr. Robert Blase, William Clewell, Mrs. Barbara Dingle, the Rev. H. James Shillabeer and Walter Pichert.

Monday, / Sept. 8

Back Mountain Baseball will meet at 8 p.m. Dallas American Legion.

All managers, coaches and volunteers of Girl's Softball and Little League Hardball are asked to attend. Election of officers will take place.

Dr. Gerald M. Reisinger N.D., D.C. will give a lecture to the Society Towards Autistic Research, S.T.A.R. He will cover nutrition and exercise therapy for autistic children.

Reisinger has taught nutrition and outdoor education in the Iowa Public School system. He has instituted many nutrition and outdoor education programs here in our community. Currently, he is teaching preventive medicine at College Misericordia. The lecture will cover the important topics of childhood nutrition, exercise postural programs and outdoor childhood learning experiences.

The monthly meeting will be held first at 6:45, the lecture following at 7:30. Location is in the basement of the Church of Christ Uniting, corner of Sprague Ave. and W. Market St., Kingston. The public is invited to attend either one or both. Persons in contact with an autistic child or possible autistic are urged to attend.

Tuesday, / Sept. 9

The Lake-Lehman Board of School Directors will meet at 8 p.m. in the multi-purpose room of the Ross Elementary School, Sweet Valley. Allen C. Keiper, President, will preside.

Wilkes-Barre General Hospital's Education Department will sponsor its "Outpatient Diabetic Education Program," a four-part educational series at 6:30 p.m. in the hospital's Alumni Hall, third floor east wing. The program, being held as a Blue Cross reimbursement plan, will also be held at that site on Sept. 11, 16 and 18 from 7 to 9:30 p.m.

The program is open to the public and is free-of-charge for those covered in full by Blue Cross (non-Medicare) plans. All Blue Cross plan subscribers must be a newly diagnosed diabetic or must have been hospitalized within the 12 months prior to March 18. Participants must be referred by a physician and are required to attend all four sessions. (Cost for non-Blue Cross subscribers is $165.)

Topics to be addressed include: "Managing Your Diabetes," "Meal Planning," "Shopping for Food," "Dining Out," "Coping With Diabetes," "Diabetical Medications" and "Prevention and Postponement of Complications."

The fall training session for new volunteers for the Threshold program is scheduled for Sept. 13 and 14 at the Parish House of the Prince of Peace Church on Main St. in Dallas.

Threshold, a ten week course, is taught at the State Correctional Institution in Dallas as part of the pre-release program. It offers the imprisoned person a new way to look at himself, at others, and at life in general thus enabling him to cope more effectively with situations that come up in every day life. The program stresses the point that it is possible to organize one's life and follow through on commitments.

The Threshold program was initiated in 1965 by Dr. Milton Burglass and is now in operation in at least 35 locations in the United States. It has been taught at the Correctional Institution in Dallas since 1978.

New volunteers are needed who are willing to give 10 weeks of their time in order to help an imprisoned person preparing for parole become a responsible member of society.

For further information call Ingrid Prater at 823-9548 or Sr. Barbara Craig at 287-6801 or write: Mrs. Ingrid Prater, P.O. Box 71, Dallas, Pa. 18612.
