Students in Dallas District head back to school today

The 1986-87 school year will begin for all students in the Dallas School District on Sept. 3, Frank Galicki, assistant principal of the Dallas Senior High School, announced. The professional staff of the Dallas Schools will participate in an in-service program Sept. 2. The high school begins at 8 a.m. and dismisses at 2:56 p.m. Parents are requested to consult the bus routes published in the newspapers to determine their child's bus assignment and departure points. Any concerns regarding bus transportation should be addressed to Susan Farr, bus coordinator, at the Dallas School District Administration Offices, Church Street, Dallas. All Dallas Senior High School seniors and juniors should consult the bulletin boards listings, in the cafeteria, and report to their assigned homerooms at 8 a.m.

Dallas Senior High School sophomores should report to the high school auditorium. Secondary students who have not registered for school should report to the building office of their respective schools. The school lunch program will begin on Sept. 3, the first day of school is a full day session. Parents are reminded that the cost of the student lunch is 95 cents for secondary students.
