Around town

Summer is surely over when school begins. At Trinity Nursery School we have already held our orientation.

with her sister-in-law Lori. They do arrangements in both silk and real flowers. Some of their creations are on display at Pickett's Charge.

KINGSBURY

One thing that happens to every student in the early grades is that they bring home lots of papers. Many moms put the papers up on the refrigerator, but a refrigerator can only hold so many papers and then the problem of what to throw out arises.

My sister solved this problem for me when she bought my son a bulletin board for his room. In this way he can display what papers he wishes to, and get rid of those he no longer needs to make room for new papers.

Best wishes also to Father George Jeffrey, Our Lady of Victory Church, Harvey Lake. Father Jeffrey has been assigned pastor of Church of Saint Luke, Jersey Shore.

Congratulations to Carol Sitar, Huntsville Road, who has been named to the School Board of the Scranton Diocese. Carol is a former teacher and the mother of five children. She and her family belong to Gate of Heaven Church.

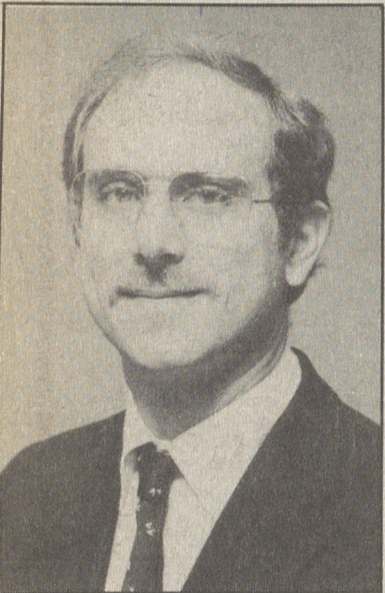

Todd Butcher and his mother, Susan, New Goss Manor, have returned from a fun-filled vacation in Cape May, N.J. Sharing in the fun were Grandma and Grandpa Fisher, who also live in New Goss Manor.

Lourene and Chuck Reynolds and their sons Bill, Dan, Marty and Sean, New Goss Manor, have returned from a trip to Ireland where they had a great time visiting relatives from both sides of the family. The Reynolds spent two weeks faking in the sites of Dublin; County Galway, Connemara in Western Ireland and the Lakes of Killarny. They all kissed the Blarney Stone, enjoyed seeing Trinity College, and visited lots of castles.

The true luck of the Irish was with them as they had good weather for their touring.

I ran into a high school classmate the other day. It was nice to see Linda Gaylord (the former Linda Reed) and her two children. Linda has gone into the florist business
