Eight students will write weekly columns about school events

Eight area students have been named school correspondents for The Dallas Post for the 1986-87 school year announced Dotty Martin, Executive Editor of The Dallas Post. The correspondents will be responsible for weekly columns for the three Back Mountain schools — Dallas, Lake-Lehman and Gate of Heaven.

Serving as correspondents from Lake-Lehman High School are Scott Kerkowski and Susan DeGennaro.

Scott is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Kerkowski and resides at 15 Vine Street, Oak Hill, Dallas.

He is the secretary of the Lake-Lehman senior class, a member of the National Honor Society, a member of the prom committee and has been nominated for Youth Leadership Salute sponsored by Rygiel Studio.

Scott is also an athlete at Lake-Lehman as he is the defensive tackle and offensive guard on the football team as well as serving as captain of that team. He also throws the shotput on the track and field team and participates in the school's weightlifting program.

Following his high school graduation, Scott plans to attend college and major in either the science field or sports medicine.

Susan DeGennaro is the daughter of Dr. Patrick and Lois DeGennaro of 1585 Sutton Road, Shavertown.

At Lake-Lehman, she is a member of Student Government, a member of the Ski Club, a member of the yearbook and prom committees, a member of SADD Students Against Drunk Driving and has participated in several school plays.

Selected to attend the Hugh

O'Brien Youth Leadership Seminar in her sophomore year, Susan is also a member of Who's Who Among High School Students.

Susan also plays on the forward line for the Lady Knights field hockey team.

Susan plans to attend college after graduation, but is currently undecided about a major.

Named as Dallas High School correspondents are Crysie Bell, Barb Davies, Beth Adams and Cathy Zikor. The four girls will be working in teams of two, alternating weeks throughout the school year.

Crysie Bell is the daughter of Jean Bell of 72 Valley View Park, Dallas.

She is a member of the school newspaper, forensics, and Choristers. After graduation, Crysie plans to study International Communication.

Barb Davies is the daughter of Anne Davies, Box 163, Dallas.

She is a member of the yearbook committee, manager of the wrestling team, a member of the track team, and a member of the construction crew, set design and publicity crew for the school plays.

Following her days at Dallas, Barb plans to attend college where she will major in Architectural-Graphic Design.

Beth Adams is the daughter of Barbara Adams of 32 Peartree Lane, Dallas.

She is a member of Choristers, the school newspaper, and has participated in three school plays. Also a National Honor Society member, Beth has been named to District, Regional and State Chorus and is currently a candidate for All-Eastern Chorus.

Following her high school graduation, Beth plans to study Mass Communications with a minor in Music.

Cathy Zikor is the daughter of Joseph and Patricia Zikor. Spring Garden Street, Trucksville.

At Dallas, she is a member of the band, the school newspaper, the prop crew and the National Honor Society.

Cathy plans to attend college where she will major in Elementary Education with a minor in Spanish.

This year's Gate of Heaven correspondents are Darlene Phillips and Susan Ryan.

Darlene Phillips is the daughter of Robert and Lorraine Phillips, RD 3, Box 115-C, Hunlock Creek.

Susan Ryan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ryan, Box 253-A, RD 2, Dallas.

At Gate of Heaven, Susan is president of the eighth grade class and the eighth grade president of Student Council.
