PSU/WB adds six coaches to staff

Six new coaches have been added to the sports program at Penn State Wilkes-Barre.

According to Athletic Director Jack Monick, "This is the biggest year ever for us as we make a strong effort to build top-notch programs for our athletes." Monick says the campus now has six teams competing in Eastern Pennsylvania Community College conference, in addition to the Penn State Commonwealth campus league, which will provide competition against area community colleges, and the chance for state recognition.

Lenny Conner of Berwick started the season as the new cross country coach. Conner is the former coach at Berwick High School and is Director of the Run for the Diamonds - Berwick Marathon, one of the large road races in the state. He was voted the Susquehanna Valley Conference Coach of the Year in 1975. Conner is a 1967 graduate of Berwick High School, received a Bachelor of Science degree in Health and Physical Education from Greenville College in Illinois. He is a vocational training supervisor at the Job Corps Center in Red Rock.

Denise Dymond from Tunkhannock is the new men's and women's volleyball coach and is no stranger to the Penn State Wilkes-Barre campus. As a student there, she was CACC All-Conference volleyball stand-out in 1983-84 and went on to graduate from the University Park campus. She previously earned varsity letters in volleyball at Tunkhannock High School. She currently plays in a number of leagues including the Jenks Community Athletic Club in Evans Falls.

Don Hosey of Kingston has been working with the soccer team since mid-summer. He comes to Penn State Wilkes-Barre with experience as the cross country and track coach at Dallas Senior High School and has worked as a Recreational Program Director for the Commission of Economic Opportunity in Lycoming County. He is also a graduate of the Penn State Wilkes-Barre campus and has his Bachelor of Science Degree in Health and Physical Education from the Penn State University Park campus. He is a substitute teacher for a number of area school districts.

Stephanie Johnson of Wilkes-Barre has taken over the reins as tennis coach. A native of Lansdale, Ms. Johnson played varsity tennis for four years at the Lansdale Catholic High School and played college varsity tennis at Drexel University. She has a 4.0 women's tennis rating and plays in a variety of leagues in the Wyoming Valley and Scranton areas.

Nancy Narcum, of Forty Fort, will coach the first women's softball team at the campus. According to Ms. Narcum, the team is starting out playing as a club sport under Eastern Pennsylvania Community College rules, but she hopes the team will be able to join the CACC as a full varsity sport next year. Ms. Narcum is a Bishop O'Reilly High School graduate and a 1984 graduate of East Stroudsburg University, majoring in recreation management. She is Coordinator of Student Activities and Intramurals at the Penn State Wilkes-Barre campus.

A first ever Penn State Wilkes-Barre golf team is under the direction of Dennis Puhalla of Forty Fort, a former Hanover Area golf stand-out and former assistant professional at the Wyoming Valley Country Club. As a senior at Hanover Area High School, he received the 1967 Tony Lema National Golf Award. Puhalla was a member of the golf team at Wilkes College, where he graduated in 1971. He helped coordinate the First Annual Penn State Open held this summer at the Wyoming Valley Country Club. He is an elementary teacher in the Hanover Area School District.

Shenefield lifts Seminary over Dallas in overtime

By CHARLOT M. DENMON
Staff Correspondent

In an exciting, overtime soccer meet Wednesday at Dallas Mountaineers' field, Wyoming Seminary's Chris Shenefield scored the winning goal in a second overtime period to hand the Mountaineers their first defeat of the season. The Dallas kickers bounced back Thursday afternoon at Tunkhannock to run their record to 7-1, by downing the Tigers 5-1.

KNIGHTS DROP TO 4-4

Lake-Lehman Knights dropped to 4-4 last week by losing 6-3 to Wyoming Seminary, Thursday, at the Back Mountain field and dropping a close 4-3 match to Bishop O'Reilly when the Queensmen came from behind in the fourth period on goals by Warren Cotter and Jim Kelley.

In the Mountaineers meet with Wyoming Seminary, Dallas was in the lead 1-0 most of the game until Seminary's Chris Shenefield put the pressure on the Mountaineers in the second half with traps and passes to pave the way for Joe Dahan's goal in the fourth period which tied the score at 1-1 sending the game into overtime.

RICHARDSON SCORES FIRST

Dallas took a 1-0 lead in the first period on Mark Richardson's goal off an assist by Reese Finn at the 9:43 mark. The Mountaineers held the Blue Knights scoreless until the fourth period when Dahan knocked one past Dallas goalie John Sheehan in the final minute of the game.

Both teams went scoreless in the first overtime period but Shenefield played undaunted and at the 4:30 mark in the second overtime scored off an assist by teammate Joe Krincek.

METZ HAS 14 SAVES

Seminary's goalie John Metz had 14 saves for the Blue Knights and Dallas' John Sheehan had seven for the Mountaineers. The teams were tied on corner shots with four each but Dallas had 22 shots at goal, Seminary eight.

In Thursday's game at Tunkhannock, the teams went without scoring in the first period in a slow start on both sides. The Mountaineers came to life in the second quarter when Joel Vanderburg, assisted by Brent Snowdon, gave Dallas a 1-0 lead at the 15:40 mark.

Tiger Chad Stuckey tied the score at 1-1 at the 19:52 mark when he knocked one into the cage unassisted.

ROSENTEL, LISTER LEAD

The Mountaineers came on strong in the third and fourth periods beginning with Eric Rosentel's score off an assist by Jim Lister 28 seconds into the third period. Lister scored the next two goals unassisted at 9:28 into the period and the second one at the 14:27 mark.

At 15:59 of the final period Mike Richards gave Dallas their fifth goal knocking one in unassisted.

The win gives the Mountaineers a 7-1 record and ties them with Seminary for first place.

WILSON SCORES THREE

Tyler Wilson scored three goals in the third period to give the Blue Knights a 6-2 lead over Coach Ray Dennis' Black Knights. The Knights added a score in the fourth period when Chris Scharff knocked one in off an assist by Al Manzoni.

The Lake-Lehman Black Knights played an even game with Seminary in the first half but Seminary's strong passing game combined with its tough defense proved too much for the Black Knights in the second half.

Wyoming Seminary put the first score on the board in the first period on when Dave Heydt assisted by John Gallante scored at the 3:15 mark. Both teams went scoreless the rest of the period but in the second period, Lake-Lehman's Chris Scharff scored unassisted at 8:00 into the period to tie it up at 1-1.

It was only 30 seconds later that Wilson, off a pass by Heydt, scored to give the Blue Knights a 2-1 lead but not for long as Lehman's Doug Doerfler moved the score to 2-2 with his goal off an assist by Matt Reinert.

Wilson gave Seminary a 3-2 lead at 14:15 into the period on his score off a second assist by Heydt.

GAME BREAKS OPEN

In the third period, Seminary broke the game open when Shenefield scored unassisted at 3:22 into the period. Two minutes later Wilson assisted by Joe Dahan gave the Blue Knights a 5-2 lead, then Eugene Choi put them in front at 19:55 in the period.

Black Knights Chris Scharff made the final goal in the game off an assist by Manzoni at 14:15 into the final period to put the final score at 6-3.

COME FROM BEHIND WIN

Earlier in the week, Bishop O'Reilly came from behind in the final period to overcome Lake-Lehman's 3-2 lead and edge out the Knights 4-3.

Lake-Lehman took a 1-0 lead in the first quarter on Al Manzoni's goal 11 minutes into the period. Both teams went scoreless on the wet grass until the third quarter when Aaron Dennis scored off a pass from Chris Scharff at 13:07 into the period to give the Knights a 2-0 lead.

DALEY SCORES

Mike Daley off an assist by Warren Cotter scored at 15:45 in the period to give the Queensmen their first score. Less than a minute later he moved the Queensmen into a 2-2 tie with a penalty kick.

Doug Doerfler with an assist by Scharff at 18:32 into the period moved the score to 3-2 for the Knights.

QUEENSMEN SPARKLE

The game went into the final period with the Knights in the lead but the Queensmen put forth a strong effort and sparked by Cotter's score off an assist by Mark Luksic at the 7:34 mark to tie the score, O'Reilly's offense rallied and Jim Kelley scored the final goal unassisted at 9:05 in the period. The Queensmen tightened their defense and held back the Knights for the rest of the period.

The win moved O'Reilly to 5-2 in the western division of the conference and dropped the Knights to 4-3.

Wyoming Seminary and Dallas are tied for the lead at 7-1 in the western division of the Soccer Conference and Bishop O'Reilly is in second with 6-2. Abington Heights leads the eastern division with 7-0.

Wilkes schedules Homecoming Run

As part of the activities for its 39th Annual Homecoming Weekend, October 17-19, the Wilkes College Alumni Association will sponsor a Homecoming Run on Saturday, Oct. 18, at 9 a.m. The course for the run will begin at Ralston Field, continue through Kirby Park and the River Common to South Wilkes-Barre, and conclude back at Ralston Field.

In announcing the addition of the Homecoming Run to the Homecoming schedule, Director of Wilkes College Alumni Relations Anthony J. Shipula invited members of the local community, as well as Wilkes College students, alumni, faculty and staff, to take part. There will be a $6.00 entry fee for entrants before Thursday, Oct. 16, and a $7.00 fee after that date. All participants will receive a Wilkes College T-shirt and two tickets to the Saturday, Oct. 18 Homecoming game, when Wilkes plays Juniata at 1:30 p.m.

The field for the race will be divided into six divisions in both male and female categories: 15 and under; 16-19, 20-29, 30-39, 40-49, and 50 and over.

the first goal for Lake-Lehman with an assist by Bebey at 15:20 into the first half.

SCORE TIED

In the second half, Kim Sarnecki slipped one by Kim Kosloski to tie the score at 4:10 into the half.

Both coaches commended the girls on their intensity of play and their good sportsmanship.

It was Susie Slocum's shot, unassisted, at 20:58 into the second half that gave the Lady Knights their 2-1 lead, enough to win the game and stay on top in their division.

OUTSTANDING GAME

Coach Robyn Jones' Dallas offense played a stellar game against Nanticoke Friday with the team putting forth a balanced effort. Four different girls scored the Lady Mountaineers goals.

Lori Warnecka scored first for Dallas at 5:57 in the first half and at 19:56 into the half Lindsey Krivenko scored unassisted to give Dallas a 2-0 lead at the half.

TINNER SCORES

Joyce Tinner made it 3-0 at 2:40 into the second half when she knocked in one with an assist by Warnecka and Susie Well scored the final goal of the game unassisted at 8:06 into the half.

In Wednesday's game with Northwest, it was Maureen Wisnieski's goal off a penalty stroke at 11:00 into the first half and Renee Strauser's shot, off an assist by Lori Krivenko, on a corner shot at 21:00 into the half which gave Dallas their 2-0 lead, all they needed for the win.

Both teams played scoreless the second half but aggressive play by Warnecka and great defense by Heidi Scholz carried the Mountaineers.
