Monday, /
Oct. 6

A FREE FIRST NIGHT OPEN HOUSE PARTY is being held by the Circle Eighters of Wilkes-Barre, Modern Western Square & Round Dance Club, on Monday, Oct. 6. The club is inviting non-dancers to view this activity and give it a try.

No experience is necessary and no special skill is required. All you need is the desire for fun and friendship. Square dancing is a couples activity so bring a partner and before the evening is over you will be dancing. We are not talking about the type of dancing you learned in school or the old fashioned barn dancing, modern western square dancing is the world's greatest social mixer. This form of recreation and milk exercise is enjoyed by nearly 6 million people throughout the world.

Open house parties will be held on Mondays, Oct. 6 and 13, 8 to 10:30 p.m. at St. John's Lutheran Church, corner of Academy and S. River Sts., Wilkes-Barre. Open the door to a pleasant form of recreation - if you can walk, you can square dance.

CHAPTER 9 DISABLED AMERICAN VETERANS will meet on Monday, Oct. 6, at 7:30 p.m. at the Parsons VFW, Scott Street, Wilkes-Barre.

Commander Leo Myslak will preside. Items on the agenda include hospital activities and upcoming promotions.

Refreshments will be served. All members are urged to attend.

Show committee

The Pennsylvania Quilters plans to hold its Quilt Show '86 on Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 11 and 12, at the Penn State Wilkes-Barre Campus in Lehman. Shown here making plans for the show are, from left, Arline Matkins, Blodwyn Wilson, Catherine Savage and Eleanor Larson.

Quilt Show set for Oct. 11, 12

The Pennsylvania Quilters invite you to "Quilt Show '86" on Saturday, Oct. 11, from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. and Sunday, Oct. 12 from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. at Penn State Wilkes-Barre Campus, Lehman, Pa. (Route 118).

The Pennsylvania Quilters is a non-profit organization with over 300 members from Eastern Pennsylvania. The club was organized to share and perpetuate the rich heritage of Quilting. The Pennsylvania Quilters were highlighted in the fall 1986 issue of Country Quilts Magazine.

Among the many activities at "Quilt Show '86" will be a quilt display of over 200 new, antique and invitational quilts. Additional quilted items will be included, everything from wall hangings to vests, making over 250 entries.

There will be a watercolor art exhibit by Pat Dolan, Athens, Pa., who incorporates quilts and other Americana in her paintings. Also an antiques exhibit to complement the antique quilts.

Members of the group will have quilting demonstrations each day and a childrens quilt workshop, "Designing a Quilt with Triangles." A special Christmas Room will show many ways to decorate with quilted items.

Numerous door prizes will be awarded including original art work. A variety of homemade foods will be available for a light lunch and many vendors will be there to browse through, for the latest fabric and quilting supplies.

The raffle quilt this year is a stunning Rose Wreath Medallion Pattern, hand appliqued and quilted by the Pennsylvania Quilters.

If you missed the Great American Quilt Festival held this past spring in New York City, you will enjoy the free slide show of these award winning quilts.

Workshops will be conducted both days. "Hawaiian Applique" and "Contemporary Floral Applique" will be taught by Virginia Avery, Port Chester, NY, internationally known quilt artist, Gladys Grace, Pomfret Center, CT, with her exclusive method of shaded stenciling.

Additional workshops which will be available at the quilt show will be: "Getting Started" and "Finishing it Off", by Pennsylvania Quilters Club Founder and well known area teacher and quilter, Donna Goobic. "Strip Pieced Picture Quilts" by Joanne Ennis and Kathy Millington. "Triangles and Then Some" a quick piecing method by Margie A. Hovan.

Pre-registration for workshops is required. For further information about "Quilt Show '86" or workshops, please contact the Office of Continuing Education, Penn State Wilkes-Barre Campus, Lehman, PA 18627 or call 717-675-9220.
