Auxiliary meets

The board members of Nesbitt Memorial Hospital's Auxiliary recently held a meeting at the home of Mrs. Abram Nesbitt II, Lake Catalpa, Dallas. Mrs. Doris Coutts, past president, announced that the Nesbitt Auxiliary is one of only 10 hospital auxiliaries in the state to receive an achievement award from the Pennsylvania Association of Hospital Auxiliaries. Nesbitt's Crib-o-gram test, an auxiliary-sponsored program which measures the hearing ability of infants, earned the award. Mrs. Bette Roarty, president, conducted the meeting and discussed plans for upcoming auxiliary events. The annual dinner dance, sponsored by the Career Women's Branch of the Auxiliary, is slated for Saturday, Nov. 1. The auxiliary's Holiday Fair will be held Wednesday, Nov. 12 and will feature a "Country Christmas" theme. All proceeds from auxiliary-sponsored events are used to further enhance patient care at Nesbitt Memorial Hospital. Attending the luncheon meeting were, from left, first row, Cindi Taylor, Auxiliary Executive Board President Elect; Ruth Wilson, Executive Board Treasurer; Mabel Davies, Kingston Branch; Mary Laity, Hospitality Shop Co-Chairman; Bette Roarty, Executive Board President; Mrs. Abram Nesbitt

II, Second Vice President of Nesbitt's Board of Directors; Arlene Lorah, Auxiliary Executive Board Vice President; Marcella Gibbon, Forty Fort Branch; Ann Hatten, Forty Fort Branch; Adele Shapelle, Shavertown and Forty Fort Branches; and Mina McCracken, Shavertown and Forty Fort Branches. Second row, Doris Bedford, Rural Branch; Elsie Ellis, Forty Fort Branch President; Bonnie Porter, Luzerne Branch President; Pauline Clewell, Shavertown Branch President; Elma Anderson, Shavertown Branch; Trudy Szura, Dorranceton Branch President; Betty Mae Wagner, Kingston Branch; Mrs. George B. Davis, Kingston Branch; Thelma DeWitt, Kingston Branch; Marie Zemanick, R.N., M.S., Nesbitt Director of Nursing, Kingston Branch; and Paula Denisco, Career Branch.
