Knights will hold Memorial Mass

The Knights of Columbus Council 8224, Dallas, will hold their Annual Memorial Mass for all deceased members of the council and Father John J. O'Leary for whom the council was named on October 26.

Father O'Leary died on October 24, 1957, at the age of 70. He was Chaplain of the 3rd Division in World War I, and severely wounded when a shell hit a first-aid station while he was attending wounded soldiers. In 1926, Father was appointed pastor of a new Dallas parish which at that time included Our Lady of Victory Mission Chapel, Harveys Lake.

As a result of his untiring efforts St. Therese's Church, Shavertown, was built in 1928. He was also a prime mover for the establishment of Gate of Heaven Church, Dallas. In 1951 Father was designated "Man of the Year" in the Back Mountain and presented with the Frank H. Hemelright Annual Memorial Award.

Loved by all, he was honored in 1952, at a reception attended by hundreds of people including parishioners of the three Back Mountain churches.
