Scouts enjoy camping trip

Boy Scout Troop 530 from Beaumont left on Friday, August 24, for a weekend of camping on the battlefield at Gettysburg, Pa. Driving the boys to their destination were Scoutmaster Marty Higgins, and Unit Commissioner Judy Gramley.

The troop completed all the requirements for their Gettysburg complete patch kit and their Gettysburg medal.

On Saturday, they visited the electric map and the farm and home of Dwight Eisenhower and completed their 9.5 mile Johnny Reb hike visiting some of the important points of interest held by the south during the battles which took place for three days. On Sunday they visited the Cyclorama and the National Cemetery before completing the last of the badge requirements which is the 5.5 mile Billy Yank Hike visiting the important points of interest held by the north.

After doing some shopping they returned to camp about noon on Sunday and packed up and was ready for the return trip home at 2:15, that afternoon.

Those making the trip were Marty Higgins, S. M., Carson Gramley, J.A.S.M., Jason Darling, Marty Higgins Jr., Jessie Goble, Brad Seward, Judy Gramley, U.C., and Caryn Gramley. Also making the trip were members of Dallas Boy Scout Troop 281 with Henry Stubin as Scoutmaster.

The troop went roller skating at the Rollaway on September 26. The troop would also like to welcome David Sizemore and Doug Frantz into the troop.

The Scouts will venture to Camp Acahela to take part in the fall Showando Camporall on October 17, 18, and 19. There will also be a family night held on October 27. This will be a covered dish affair. All scouts and their families are invited to attend.
