Junior gridders end

All four Back Mountain Junior Football teams finished their Suburban League seasons by playing in shutout games on Sunday.

Kingston Township Raiders "B" tailback Brian Burd capped a 1,267-yard, 22-touchdown season by leading his team to league honors over previously unbeaten Larksville, 6-0. In the game, Burd tallied the game's only score on a 28-yard scamper around right end in the first quarter.

Dallas Band still undefeated

Pride "Mounts" as the Dallas Area Marching Band remains undefeated in Group I competition.

Competing at the "March of Champions" hosted by Lake-Lehman, Dallas tied with six other Group I bands and earned their highest score of the season - 71.45. The band was also awarded specialty trophies for music, marching and Band Front.

Sunday, Oct. 26, will find the Dallas Band at the "Warrior Invitational" hosted by Wyoming Area at their stadium in West Pittston. This will be the final competition before Chapter VII holds its championship on November 2.

Raiders "A" unit dropped a 6-0 decision on a second quarter interception return by Larksville line-backer John Hodle.

Dallas Cowboys "A" team lost a hard fought contest to league champion Northwest, 6-0, following a "B" game in which the Cowboys also fell, 16-0.
