For you, Mom!

Todd Chamberlain pins a flower on his mother, Lorraine Chamberlain while his father, Robert Chamberlain, looks on in admiration. Parents Day ceremonies took place prior to the Dallas/Bishop Hoban football game Saturday. Also looking on is Mrs. James Chester, whose son, Mark, is a member of the Dallas football team.

the overtime period scoreless and went into the second 10 minutes overtime. The Mountaineers continued to press and, at 4:00 into the period, Mike Richards off an assist by D. Morris, put one past Seminary's goalie Jeff Metz to give the Mountaineers their 2-1 win.

Earlier in the week, Dallas and Bishop Hoban played a scoreless game for the first three periods then Coach John McCafferty made some changes in the team's offense and Jim Lister scored just one minute into the final period. He kicked the ball past the Argents goalkeeper for the score.

At the 17:00 mark, Mike Richards, with an assist by Eric Marshall, scored to give the Mountaineers a 2-0 lead and the win.

Dallas had eight corner shots and Bishop Hoban two. Dallas had 22 shots at goal while Hoban had only seven. Goalie John Sheehan had 10 saves for Dallas, Joe Furman had 16 saves for the Argents.

Last Monday, Lake-Lehman was eliminated from competition when they were defeated, 4-2, by Wallenpaupack, who won its 12th consecutive game. Wallenpaupack picked up its first two scores on defensive errors by the Knights. The first one came when a Knight defender tried to kick the ball to his goalkeeper Mark Rogowski to set up a goal kick but the kick went to the left. Wallenpaupack's Matt Karpkiak got to the ball and scored to give his team a 1-0 lead. At the close of the quarter, Lehman picked up a penalty which gave Wallenpaupack's Bob McGinnity a penalty kick which he converted to give his team a 2-0 lead.

With the exception of the errors, the Knights controlled the first half but were unable to get by goalie John Newlin who turned back eight of their goal shots. Newlin continued to turn away shots in the second half but the Knights managed to score twice on Rick Parry's goal off an assist by Chris Scharff in the third period to make the score 4-1 and on Parry's score off an assist by Al Manzoni in the fourth period.

Tom Sifko scored the third goal for Wallenpaupack at 4:46 into the third period and McGinnity scored his second goal of the game at 6:51 into the third quarter with an assist by Matt Karpkiak.

The Knights outshot their opponents 24-10 on shots at goal and nine corners to one for Wallenpaupack. Wallenpaupack's John Newlin had 14 saves, Knight Mark Rogowski had four.
