Twp. supervisors pass budget

By JOHN HOINSKI
Staff Writer

The Kingston Township board of supervisors unanimously passed the final reading of the 1987 budget at its monthly meeting last Wednesday, which calls for no increase in property taxes.

Taxes will remain at five mills, with the budget being $925,785, including $188,000 for capital improvements.

Township Manager Fred Potzer said he would also like to inform residents the township has not yet taken over responsibility for Pioneer Ave. and at this point has only informed PennDOT of its intentions.

"First," Potzer said, "PennDOT will have to make approximately $200,000 worth of repairs, including the installation of drains, guardrails and resurfacing and paving of the shoulders." Potzer said the work probably will begin in 1987 when the weather breaks. The project will be funded by the Department of Transportation's Turnback Program and will be at no cost to the taxpayers.

In other business:

The board heard several complaints from residents of Fire Cut Road who say the road is being poorly maintained. Residents want the road paved but Township solicitor Atty. Ben R. Jones said that one reason the road cannot be paved is that it only 15 feet wide. He said roadways must be 33 feet wide in order to qualify for reimbursement of funds by the state.

Rejected a subdivision for plan for the Woodridge 11 development near Sutton Road because of concern over the water runoff situation.

Approved the following appointments to the township water commission: Deloris Sesiensky, Harris Hill Road, Trucksville; Robert H. Natress, Jr., Armstrong Dr., Shavertown and James Ward, Tamanini Dr., Wyoming.

Accepted a high bid of $2,600 from the Lake Township Board of Supervisors to buy the township's 1983 Plymouth Fury cruiser.
Approved an ordinance requiring dumpsters at all new building construction sites for the purpose of discouraging abuse of the township's open burning law by contractors.

but that is not significant." Among the few things Corrine cannot do is drive because of her vision which is not as good as it once was. She does however enjoy walking in the warm weather.

It is a special honor to Corrine that her three daughters, Ramah, Robin and Leigh were Homecoming Queens at Dallas.

Ramah, the oldest, graduated from Wittenburg in Ohio and is now with Bell Atlantic, outside of Washington, D.C. Robin, a senior at Gettysburg, is enjoying her first semester in Geneva, Switzerland, and Leigh, of course is a senior at Dallas. The girls served as Homecoming Queens at Dallas in 1980, 1982 and 1986, respectively.

"The girls have always been kind and caring persons, always considerate of others, just as they were of me when I was ill," Corrine says fondly of their daughters. "I guess that is why their friends and classmates like them and respect them." Corrine Pawling readily admits her frustrations but to someone who has not seen her in a long time, she has the same lilt in her voice, same wit and humor and the same caring she had when she founded Career Concepts for Women, and later took over and directed Uniforce Temporary Services.

People

Repko, age 13, was hunting with her brother Joe and her grandparents Dorothy and Fred Sokolowski, of Davenport St., Dallas.

LEO G. THOMAS, son of Joan Z. Thomas, of 160 Summit Ave., Summit, N.J., has been promoted in the U.S. Air Force to the rank of senior airman. His grandfather, John A. Rakos, resides at 127 W. Mount Airy Road, Shavertown.

THREE BACK MOUNTAIN RESIDENTS were recent recipients of awards for their contributions to the 1986 "Ride to Stop Cancer." Maria Stahovec, Dallas, was honored for having the most pledges; Carol King, Dallas, was honored as the oldest rider in the event; and Ann Smaka, Dallas, was the winner of the 10-speed bicycle in a drawing held after the event.

MRS. LENORE ROSENCRANS, a representative from the Luzerne-Wyoming Counties Drug and Alcohol Program, recently presented the film A Step in Time to the sixth grade students of Mr. Cicon's drug and alcohol classes at the Dallas Junior High School. The film centered on alcohol awareness.

DR. MICHAEL J. RAYMOND of Dallas, Director of Psychological Services at Allied Services' John Heinz Institute of Rehabilitation Medicine, Wilkes-Barre, presented a paper at the sixth annual meeting of the National Academy of Neuropsychologists in Las Vegas, Nevada on October 27, 1986.

A native of Little Falls, N.J., Dr. Raymond lives in Dallas with his wife, the former Carrie Roberts of Dallas, a medical technologist at the Wilkes-Barre General Hospital.

WADE CURTIS, of Dallas, was recently elected president of the Student Government Association of Luzerne County Community College.

AIRMAN BENJAMIN KOPROWSKI, son of Linda F. and Chester J. Koprowski of RD 1, Sweet Valley, has graduated from Air Force basic training at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas. He is a 1986 graduate of Lake-Lehman Senior High School.
