Gate of Heaven news

GREGORY STAHVEC, CHRISTOPHER SCOTT AND IGNATIUS HOSEY of Gate of Heaven School attended the 4-H Local Government Day held at The Holiday Inn, Wilkes-Barre, in November.

The participants were separated into groups to debate the issue of developing a recrea- tional trail out of the Grand View Railroad Bed. Groups proposed ideas supporting the trail, while one group was charged with opposing the plan.

They debated ways of using it, when to use it, how to maintain it, and how it would be paid for. It was finally decided that the trail would be developed and it would be paid for by donations.

This was all done to teach students how the government would go about this kind of project. The 4-H Local Govern- ment Day is a very educational experience for all who attend.

THE ANNUAL BOOK FAIR held at school last week was very successful. All the classes, including the kindergarten, partic- ipated in the library fund raiser which garnered approxi- mately $400.

The three classes highest in sales were: Mrs. Ruch's third grade, Mrs. Albert's fifth grade, and Mrs. McCarthy's seventh grade.

STUDENT OF THE WEEK IGNATIUS "I.J." HOSEY, 13, son of Ignatius and Rosey, is the student of the week. His favorite subject is Social Studies.

In his leisure time, I.J. enjoys skateboarding, art and free- style.

In the future he plans on going to Bishop Hoban High School.

Around town

THANKSGIVING IS OVER for this year. Everyone proba- bly has had their fill of turkey. (After the third day of turkey, featuring turkey soup, my three kids pleaded in unison, "Please Mom, no more turkey.")

AT TRINITY NURSERY SCHOOL we had a great party with our students wearing cos- tumes made in school. Indian costumes for the boys (this just seems so appropriate) and Pil- grim costumes for the girls.

Following lunch, which included a lesson on popcorn, first used by the Indians, we had a special treat.

Katie's mom brought in two beautiful angora rabbits to show the children. Marshmallow, a fluffy white bunny and Amy, who is grey with a black face. She explained that angora yarn is made from their fur. (You see, even the teacher benefits from these wonderful special programs. I really had never given any thought to where we get beautiful angora yarn.

Now everyone is gearing up for the year's biggest holiday, Christmas!

LAST WEEKEND, Gate of Heaven PTG held their annual Holiday Fair. It was a great success, which is due to the very hard work put in by so many volunteers.

I have attended many civic and church affairs throughout my years as a writer for The Post and always the same feel- ing of dedication, hard work and good will prevail. With the hectic lifestyle we lead today, it certainly is great to see that people are so good at heart and will work so hard for their children, and for the benefit of their church or community.

CONGRATULATIONS to Rosendo E. Santos, professor of music at Wilkes College, who has been appointed Music Director at Shavertown United Methodist Church. Professor Santos assumed his duties December 1.

His wife, Rev. Harriet L. Santos, pastor at Huntsville United Methodist Church, is associate pastor at Shavertown United Methodist Church.

RESIDENTS OF KINGSTON TOWNSHIP - it's time to start thinking about your holiday decorating scheme.

Again this year the Kingston Township recreation commis- sion is sponsoring a Christmas Home Decorating Contest. Judg- ing will be conducted by mem- bers of the commission on December 21.

If you live in Kingston Town- ship and would like to enter, register at the township office in person or by phone.

FATHER JOHN J. O'LEARY COUNCIL 8224, Dallas, recently held its fourth annual Charter Night dinner dance at The Barn, Newberry Estates.

Members and guests enjoyed a cocktail and hors d'oeuvres hour followed by a full course roast beef dinner.

Invocation was given by Rev. Louis A. Grippe, pastor of Our Lady of Victory Church, Harveys Lake. District Deputy William Jones was guest speaker.

Following presentations and dinner, music was provided by "Jimmy Bone Orchestra."

Dinner dance committee members were Lou Butera, Ernest Schmid, Gerard Schmid, and Bruce Boyle.

BEST WISHES TO Mr. and Mrs. Gary F. Stavish who were recently married in Our Lady of Sorrows Church, West Wyo- ming.

Mrs. Stavish is the former Michelle Marie O'Donnell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald O'Donnell, 27 Forest Drive, Dallas.

A graduate of Dallas High School, King's College and NPW-Pittston Hospital School of Nursing, she is employed at a registered nurse in the Surgical Intensive Care Unit at Wilkes-Barre General Hospital.

Mr. Stavish, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Stavish, 43 Greg- ory Ave., West Pittston, is a graduate of Wyoming High School and is employed by Topps Chewing Gum, Inc., Duryea.

Following a wedding trip to Waikiki and Maui, Hawaii, the couple is residing in Wyoming.

Third Kind," "Perfect," "Star- man," "A Passage to India," "Annie," "A Soldier's Story," and "On the Waterfront."

Disney classics are available at a cost of $29.95, classics such as "Sleeping Beauty," "Pinoc- chio," "Dumbo," "Alice in Won- derland," "Mary Poppins," "Treasure Island," "Pol- lyanna," "Old Yeller," and "Bedknobs and Broomsticks."

Other home-video outfits as CBS-Fox and Vestron will make their video announcements in a few months.

Movie blockbusters hitting the video market at $79.95 are MCA's "Out of Africa" and "The Money Pit;" Touchstone's "Down and Out in Beverly Hills;" MGM-UA's "9½ Weeks" and "Runaway Train;" HBO-Cannon's "F-X;" Paramount's "Young Sherlock Holmes;" Warner's "Wildcats," and Vestron's "At Close Range" and "The Imagemaker."

Music video viewers can anticipate the release of a number of music videos ranging from Wham's George Michael's "Foreign Skies" (CBS-Fox, $19.98), "The Monkees' "Head" (RCA-Columbia, $69.95).

Library news

By NANCY KOZEMCHAK
 Library Correspondent

The Back Mountain Memorial Library has received a generous contribution of more than 100 books and nine video cassettes from the Endless Mountains Chapter of Trout Unlimited. The books include current authors and subjects and classics in angling literature. The video cassettes are the first obtained by the library and include sub- jects of fly tying and fishing.

The Endless Mountain Chap- ter has been active in numerous conservation and educational projects in the area. Kenny Matchett and Duncan White- head, two of our active borrow- ers, have been enjoying the books and especially the cas- settes which include titles such as "The Way of a Trout," "How to Fish for Trout," "Anatomy of a Trout Stream" and "Flyfish- ing for Bass". The library is grateful for this generous dona- tion.

We have a poster on our bulletin board publicizing a new book by Robert Burleigh titled, "A Man Named Thoreau" pub- lished by Atheneum with illus- trations by Lloyd Bloom. This is a children's book suitable for 3rd grade up. Henry David Tho- reau was an American writer who is remembered for his attacks on the social institutions he considered immoral and for his faith in the religious signifi- cance of nature.
