"I don't think we should have, since they took hostages. We should try to get friendly with them, but not that way."

"No. I think it's the manufacturers who try to keep the war (in Iran and Iraq) going... (The U.S. is) the greatest country in the world, the best place to live, and it doesn't pan out, you know?"

"No, now without the people's approval."

"Absolutely not. They should impeach Reagan."

Man injured

Joseph Balla, of Box 163, Sweet Valley, was treated for throat and chest cuts after being involved in an accident with his 1981 AMC Spirit Sunday afternoon. Balla was reportedly travelling west on Main Road in Sweet Valley when he lost control of his car. The auto then weaved through a used car lot, only to go through the side of a two-car garage owned by Don Wesley, damaging two cars. Wesley stored freshly painted cars in the garage. Sweet Valley Fire Co. and Ambulance assisted at the scene of the accident. A female passenger in the Balla automobile was uninjured.

TO TELL THE TRUTH

The truth is our usual January fur sale gives us problems because that's when our Christmas gift customers come back for fittings and discover new bargains. Naturally, they ask for price adjustments. That's difficult. To solve our problem, we've simply advanced our January sale and reduced the prices on our ENTIRE fur collection by 20% or more - including mink, fox, tanuki, raccoon, Finnish raccoon, beaver, opossum, rabbit, fur-lined coats and leathers, muskrats, fitch and many more.

Consider this our Christmas gift to you.

Shop and compare and you'll buy your furs at Blum Bros., where our customers are our best ads.
