ies for an elderly aunt or a busy daughter-in-law, whose career and homemaking duties don't allow the time to bake. And for a favorite niece or nephew, why not give one of J&J's gingerbread houses ranging in price from $8.50 to $25.00, all of them beautifully decorated for the holidays.

For the modern Miss or Mrs. on your gift list, drop in and browse at New York Connection, next door to J&J. Select a heavy, hand knit sweater for $55, hand made, colorful ponchos, or one of the colorful silk dresses from India. For the special man in your life, there are beautiful pure silk ties.

Roth Jeweler's offers a talking clock or a Calendar Calculator complete with clock. A pocket or purse size quartz radio and snooze alarm is just the gift for the special college student or sports fan on your gift list, or why not a solar-powered watch — so 'In' this year. For the "she", who has everything, select one of the uniqu music boxes such as an old-fashioned Victor victrola, Victorian telephone, or from the various colorful, genuine porcelain musical Carousel Horses.

For that special person on your list, who likes antique jewelry or Colonial items, make a visit to Overbrook Market Place. In the Bay Window building, you'll find antique jewelry, hand-smocked children's dresses, snowshoes, Claire Burke fragrances (difficult to find in most shops) and collectors' dream — a real 'mink' lady (real mink) only $55.00, along with a variety of different-sized primitive Santa Clauses in prices from $18 to $48.

Looking for country gifts for the 'Country Home' owner on your list? Stop in at The Porches where you'll find a large selection of miniature Colonial America houses, stores, banks, depots and many more. For someone who enjoys unique decorations, why not give an apple wreath, made of sliced, unpeeled apples-different but beautiful-for only $28, or a colorful, stuffed handmade goose for $25. The 'piece d'reistance' is the beautiful 'Fireside' doll for only $28.

In the Dallas Shopping Center, browse through Country Carousel where you'll find a wealth of beautiful, but different hand-crafted items. From napkin holders to handpainted mail boxes, you'll find beauty in Pat Snowdon's shop. Ducks in all sizes, all materials, plain to true colors of the wild, they're all to be found for the collector on your list with a wide range in price. Handpainted mail boxes in three different sizes, baskets, brass planters, lamps, and other items and beautiful pure beeswax candles. There is something for everyone at Country Carousel.

Pick up last minute cards at the Heritage Shop and while there, spend time looking at the 'gifts that say you care', hand-woven knits in pastel shades, mugs for everyone on your list, birthday figurines, and for the collector on your list-Precious Moments, more than you can imagine, and for the small ones (and the big ones) on your holiday gift list stuffed animals from tiny bears, elephants, dogs, to medium-sized hippos, monkeys, kittens, teddy bears, to Gund, the soft, cuddly, lovable collectible.

Last but by no means least, for that one difficult gift, stop at Mum Farm Florist in Shavertown. Talk to Donna, explain your dilemma. We guarantee, she will make you a beautiful floral arrangement.
