Contest open

Dr. Thomas F. O'Donnell, Executive Director, Luzerne Intermediate Unit 18, announces the annual search for artiscally talented high school sophomores and juniors is officially underway as posters and application forms for the 1987 session of the Pennsylvania Governor's School for the Arts are now being distributed to all secondary schools.

Sponsored by the Pennsylvania Department of Education and the state's intermediate units, the Pennsylvania Governor's School for the Arts is a full-scholarship, residential summer arts program held each summer on the campus of Bucknell University in Lewisburg, Pennsylvania. Approximately 210 students, including artiscally talented handicapped students, will be selected from across the state to participate in the five-week session, July 5 - August 8, 1987.
