Mike Luksic

Dallas' Luksic chooses Kings

BY CHARLOT M. DENMON
Staff Writer

Mike Luksic, outstanding basketball player for Dallas High School will attend King's College in the fall where he plans to be a candidate for the college varsity team.

During his high school career, Mike averaged 18.1 points and eight rebounds per start during his senior year. In his junior year, he averaged 14.2 points and seven rebounds each game. He shot with 60 percent accuracy from the field and was a 67 percent free throw shooter during the past season. He blocked 27 field goal tries.

During his senior year, Mike made the coach's second team All Stars in Division I. He was a member of the Valley Sportsmen, high school division. During high school, Mike, 6-7, 210 lbs. played three years on the Mountaineer varsity basketball team under Coach Clarence Ozgo. He starred in last year's Keystone Games, with 17 points per game and 14 of 16 free throws to go with 7.5 rebounds per game.

In summer camp play, Mike was the best shooter at King's, best foul shooter at Mansfield and made the Pocono Invitational Camp All Star team.

More than 50 colleges and universities contacted Luksic this year and he narrowed his choice of a college to nine schools and visited six campuses before he decided to study and play for King's College.

Mike is listed in the Metro Index, a scouting service for college coaches.

During his three years at Dallas Senior High School, Mike has been named to the Dallas Honor Roll. He has been an altar boy at St. Therese's Church, Shavertown.

King's Coach Ken Atkins said Mike will be a welcome addition to the court program of the Monarchs. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard M. Luksic, Shavertown, Mike credits Erv Carter, former Crestwood basketball coach with helping him considerably during his basketball career.

Coach Atkins stated, "I am very happy that Mike has decided to continue his academic and athletic careers at King's College. He possesses an excellent shooting touch. His size and agility will make him an outstanding college player. I look for him to compete for a spot on the varsity roster. He has the potential to be a strong inside force for the Monarchs for future years. I pursued Mike heavily this past year and look forward to working with him for the next four years."

Teachers in demand

Teachers in the job market continue to find increased opportunities, according to the Teacher Supply-Demand 1988 Report released by the Association for School, College, and University Staffing (ASCUS). This report, released annually, indicates that the majority of responding placement officers believe that the teacher job market has further improved during the past year.

Locally, Arnie Garinger, director of College Misericordia's Career and Placement Center, reports that teacher demand in this area is similar to the national data. However, the need for teachers in special education remains at a higher rate than the need for elementary education teachers.

The teaching fields of bilingual education, personal and social adjustment (behavioral disorders), learning disabilities and multi-handicapped are reported to have the greatest relative demand of the 41 fields which were surveyed on a national basis.

While opportunities for teachers continues to expand across the country, placement officers in the Mid-Atlantic and Southeast Regions indicate a greater optimism for teacher opportunities while placement officers in the Northwest and Rocky Mountain Regions indicate lesser optimism relative to teaching opportunities.

A surprise visit

Squeals and peels of laughter were heard at Mercy Center Nursery and Kindergarten Thursday, as Wilbur, the famous pig and Charlotte, the wondrous spider made a surprise visit to the school. The children met and became friends with Wilbur and Charlotte when the classes took their annual field trip to the live theatre to see production of "Charlotte's Web" presented by the Misericordia Players. As an added treat, Wilbur and Charlotte distributed lollipops and balloons to all their friends at the school. The visit was made possible at the special invitation of Sister Stella Maris, RSM, Director of Mercy Center Nursery and Kindergarten, Dallas, and by Mr. Rusty Anderson, Director of Children's Theatre, College Misericordia, Dallas.

Many summer jobs available

With the summer Pocono resort season on the way, Pennsylvania Job Service offices are registering applicants for hundreds of job orders placed by area employers.

Job Service, an agency of the state Department of Labor and Industry, provides placement, referral, aptitude testing and related services at no charge to employers or job seekers.

According to Stroudsburg local office manager Curry McLaughlin, job openings are for both summer and permanent positions in resort-related businesses as well as in the construction and retail trade industries.

A wide range of job opportunities is available, including waiters-waitresses; kitchen helpers, desk clerks, lifeguards, groundskeepers, carpenters, plumbers, electricians, construction helpers and sales clerks. Salaries vary from minimum wage to $10 per hour.
