Kimberly Ford — Popple

Kimberly Paige Ford weds Mark Popple

All Saints Episcopal Church, Norristown, Pa. provided the setting for the recent marriage of Kimberly Paige Ford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Ford, Dallas, formerly of Norristown, to Mark Anthony Popple, son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Popple, Bear Creek Twp., Wilkes-Barre.

The Rev. Robert H. Coble of All Saints and the Rev. John S. Prater of Prince of Peace Episcopal Church, Dallas, concelebrated the Liturgy.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose Linda A. Bullo as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Michele M. Souza, Kristin D. Parkinson, Pamela L. Butera, and Pamela J. Olsen.

Jeffrey S. Popple was best man for his brother. Ushers were David C. Popple, brother of the bridegroom; Robert A. Remensnyder, William C. Chase, Darren C. Ford, brother of the bride; John A. Bonita and David J. Bonomo.

A cocktail hour and dinner dance reception followed at the Chateau Granieri, Jeffersonville, Pa.

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the bridegroom's parents at The Jefferson House, Norristown.

The bride was feted at a luncheon shower given by Mrs. Gail M. Popple at the Holiday Inn, Wilkes-Barre. Ms. Sandra A. McAdoo and Mrs. Linda J. Eicholtz co-hosted a shower at 531 Colony La., Collegeville, Pa. Lastly, Linda A. Rullo hosted a bridal luncheon at the Merion Cricket Club, Merion, Pa.

Mrs. Popple is the granddaughter of Mrs. Charles H. Stoy, Jr., Bridgeport, Pa. and the late Charles H. Stoy, Jr., both formerly of King of Prussia, Pa. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Donald R. Ford, Sr., Cape May Court House, NJ, formerly of Coleston, Pa. and Avalon, NJ.

(The Dallas Post inadvertently published the above photo with a social item about a different wedding last week. We sincerely regret the error, and we have printed the correct photo with the proper information. Our apologies to the Ford and Popple families.)

Kingston 1938 class holds 50th reunion

An area high school class got a unique opportunity not that many graduating classes get a chance to enjoy - getting together for a 50th anniversary reunion celebration.

The Kingston Township High School Class of 1938 celebrated their 50th reunion at the Castle Inn, Dallas, on Saturday, May 28.

Members of the reunion committee reported that they had worked very diligently over the past two years to make the affair possible, spending much time planning and contacting members.

Members of the committee were; Charlotte D. Martin, Chairman (Captain); Norma Henning Ritchie, Co-chairman (First Mate); Walter Gosart, Treasurer (Skipper); and Crew: Eleanor Brown Montross, Betty Case Kunkle, Ellen Gregory Crispell, Dorothy Loveland Griffith and Robert Rave.

The original officers of the class were: President, Bernard Wilson (deceased);

Vice-president, Norma Henning; Secretary, Betty Owens and Treasurer, Edward Gallagher.

The 1938 Class Motto was "Launched-But Not Anchored."

The Class Colors were purple and white.

The Class Flower was the gardenia.

The Golden Cruise of Memory began at 6 p.m., with muster for dinner at 7 p.m.

The dinner was attended by 30 class members and their spouses.

Charlotte Martin welcomed all present with thanks to the committee and introduced the co-chairperson Norma Henning Ritchie.

Following these introductions, a few minutes of silence were observed in loving memory of deceased members.

The invocation, given by Susan Palmer Rice, preceded dinner, a program of reminiscing and group singing.

The evening ended with the benediction by Susan Palmer Rice and the singing of the class's original Alma Mater.

A display of memorabilia, newspaper articles, headlines and ads were available for observation and conversation.

NOW — Officers of the Kingston Township High School Gaudtaing Class of 1938 toast their classmates who attended their 50th class reunion. Thirty members of the class and their spouses attended the gala event.

THEN — Some of the same women are shown on a 1937 girls' basketball team photo taken in 1937 when they would have been juniors at the high school.
