Trinity Nursery graduates May 24

BY CHARLOT M. DENMON
Staff Writer

Children of Trinity Nursery School, Dallas, held a school closing program and graduation exercises, May 24, at Trinity United Presbyterian Church.

The program opened with a welcome to parents and friends by The Rev. Andrew Pillarella followed by the pledge of allegiance and the singing of America.

Members of the nursery class presented a medley of songs they had learned during the year. Leslie DeWees sang a solo, "Zip-A-Dee-Doo-Dah."

Preschool students sang several selections followed by "He's Got The Whole World in His Hands", by Justin Ash, Lori Bertinelli and Jacob Burke.

A solo "Where, Oh Where, Can My Baby Be?" was presented by Carrie Strasser and J.P. Urban, dressed as a Marine, sang "From the Halls of Montezuma" and "East Side, West Side." He also recited verses he had learned in preschool class during the term.

Diplomas were presented to the morning and afternoon preschool students and certificates were presented to the morning and afternoon nursery students.

Following the closing selections by the entire group, refreshments were served in the Miracle Building to parents, friends and children.

Faculty members were Mrs. Sally Davenport, Mrs. Nancy Higgins and Mrs. Joan Kingsbury. Director of the school is Mrs. Edith Pillarella.

Job Corps offers training for many

This is the time of the year when some soon to be high school graduates realize they do not know what they will be doing next. It can be a very anxious time for many young people.

Job Corps, a U.S. Dept. of Labor training program, has been trusted opportunity for 16 through 21 year olds for 24 years. There are currently many opportunities open to qualified high school graduates, and they are all free. Training is available to be secretaries, nursing assistants, cosmetologists, carpenters, plumbers, plasterers, electricians, masons, building maintenance people, diesel mechanics, auto mechanics, electronic assemblers, floorcovers, cooks, welders and appliance repairers. Advanced training programs requiring a high school diploma and a prerequisite course are the United Auto Worker's Clerks advanced clerical program, sign painters program, lag assistant, e.k.g. assistant, home health aide and physical therapy aide. Also requiring a high school diploma are two year college programs offered at the Pittsburgh, Charleston and Blue Ridge Centers. Certificate and two year associate degree programs are available in secretarial, drafting, pedology (child care), dietetic assistant, medical assistant, respiratory therapy technician, data processing, retail management and merchandising, nuclear power technology, social work technician, banking and finance, library media technology and many more.

Transportation to the Job Corps Center, dormitories, meals, books and tuition are also free. A small spending allowance and a readjustment allowance are also provided. College applicants must be enrolled at a Job Corps Center 30 to 90 days before college starts.

BACK FROM FIELD TRIP — Dallas HS students finish special studies

Dallas students complete study of colonial history

The American Literature Field Studies Association of the Dallas Senior High School recently returned from a field trip which culminated a full year's study of the cultural history of Colonial America. Students traveled to New England to Mystic Marinelife Aquarium, Mystic Seaport Museum, Plymouth National Wax Museum, Pilgrim Hall Museum in Plymouth, Massachusetts, the Pilgrim Monument in Provincetown. Students toured the island of Nantucket and explored the artifacts of colonial American whaling days, and toured the Mayflower II and Plymouth Plantation to study the realities of passage to and life in America in the 17th Century.

fellow students at Dallas during their field studies in New England. To help their fellow students better understand their field experiences, they purchased two books from the Nantucket Historical Association which were presented to the school library. Nantucket Island by Robert Gambee traces the history of the island; The Loss of the Ship "Essex" Sunk by a Whale and the Ordeal of the Crew in Open Boats by Thomas Nickerson, the last of the open boat survivors, relates the story of the whaling ship "Essex" on which Herman Melville traveled with a whaling expedition prior to his writing Moby Dick.
