Summer leagues start

BY CHARLOT M. DENMON
 Staff Writer

The summer bowling league at the Back Mountain Bowl got underway last Tuesday with 16 teams across the lanes. Since there are only 10 weeks of summer bowling, the teams divided into four divisions and the top teams of each division will rolloff for the league title at the end of the summer season.

In Division A the Misfits shut out Just Friends paced by M. Schmoll's 235, 610 and C. Kazokas' 590. R. Clemow's 553 led the losing four. Kandle Light Lounge picked up three from Hot Flashes with no one breaking 500.

Finn & Teetsel's team took 3½ points from Pins Are Us in Division B. B. Finn was high for both teams with 510. Happy Hours and Demolition divided equally sparked by B. Considine'w 544 and F. Tregan's 520.

Mr. Mow copped three points from the Mixed team despite their B. Eipper rolling 216 (581) in Division C. All In The Family spit 2-2 with MW's aided by L. Coolbaugh's 518.

D. Moore's 217 (588) and Joan Moore's 213 (527) led the way for their team's three points from the Out To Lunch Bunch, whose high roller was Glen Mazer with 574 in Division D. It was another 2-2 split between X-Factors and Dead Heads in Division D with no high scores posted.

In the final night of the Idetown Compacts League Tempos blanked the Corvettes aided by Jean's 181-193 (494). Jo Ann Hubbell rolled 184-174 (485) for the losing five. J. Berti's 558 led the Chargers to four points from the Yugo's and the Porsche's picket up four by a forfeit from the Benz. Laura hit 201 (516) for the Porsche team and Cindy bowled 232-174 (571) for Benz.

Colts earned three from Aries with Emory's 215 (533) and Charlie's 524 showing the way. Fieros and the Cierras divided equally in their match aided by Barb May's 214183 (546) for Fieros and the Cierras led by M. Morris' 172 (470).
