Spectacular defense keys East All Star win

BY CHARLOT M. DENMON
Staff Writer

Outstanding defensive play in the 7th inning by Cassie Hudock of the East saved her team's 6-5 lead Monday in Dallas Kiwanis Club's Senior All-Star Softball game.

Coach Jay Pope's West team trailed by one run going into the top of the seventh. They put runners on first, and second with one out. Rightfielder Krista Ruckle tried to drive in a run with a long drive to leftfield but Hudock made a sparkling catch on the warning track to hold the runners.

Joyce Tinner of Dallas hit another long drive to left and Hudock made a second spectacular catch to end West's threat and retire the side.

Both teams made great defensive plays but East insured the win by adding two runs in the bottom of the eighth inning to take an 8-5 lead.

West scored first in the game when they pushed two runs across in the top of the first inning, but

East came back in the bottom of the first to tie the game at 2-2.

West girls refused to give up and scored a run in the top of the second to take a 3-2 lead. East retaliated in the bottom of the second to tie the score at 3-3.

East broke the tie in the bottom of the fourth with a run but West went in front 5-4 in the top of the fifth on runs scored by Seminary Amy Antinnes and Mountaineer Joyce Tinner.

They were the final runs for the West as East came back in the bottom of the fifth with two runs to move the score to 6-5. Behind Cindy Hughes pitching and her team's outstanding defense she held the West for the final innings. In the bottom of the seventh East scored two insurance runs.

Hughes, who picked up the win and hit two doubles, was named East's Most Valuable Player. Tinner who made several spectacular plays at shortstop and went 2-4 at the plate received M.V.P. for the West. Players on both teams received trophies and the M.V.P.'s received plaques.
