Six hurt in 5 car crash

Six persons were injured in a five vehicle accident that occurred Saturday, Aug. 27, on Route 309 near the Pizza Bar in Trucksville. Gordon W. Reese, 73, of Holiday Drive, Kingston, was driving south on Route 309 when he apparently blacked out and the Oldsmobile he was driving hit a van and three cars traveling in front of him. Reese and his wife, Elizabeth, were transported to Wilkes-Barre General Hospital where Reese was treated and admitted. His wife was treated and released. Samuel Lombardo Jr., 27, Broad Street, Pittston, driver of the van and his passenger Amber Laber, 26, Meadowcrest, Trucksville, were also treated and released at Wilkes-Barre General Hospital. Samuel Pape, 81, Birch Hill Lane, Dallas, and Bernadine Pape, 62, of the same address were treated and released from Nesbitt Memorial Hospital, Kingston. Two other drivers in the accident Martin L. Arledge, Jr., Wyoming Avenue, Wilkes-Barre and Frank Kiwak, 41, N. Loveland Ave., Kingston, escaped injury. Investigating officers were Robert Weiss and Sgt. James Balavage.

3 injured in accident

Three teenagers were injured in a vehicle accident Saturday about 9 p.m. on Route 309 near Center Street, Shavertown. Michael Kelly, 16, South Main Street, Plains, was traveling north on Route 309 when his vehicle was struck by a southbound vehicle driven by Albert Breymer, Hickory Road, Dallas, according to police. Breymer was attempting to turn left on to Center Street. Kelly and two passengers in his car, Bernard Yashkus, Maple Street, Plains and Daniel Heller, Bowman Street, Wilkes-Barre were treated and released from Nesbitt Memorial Hospital. Both passengers were 16 years of age. Breymer and Shirley Breymer, passenger in the car, did not require medical treatment.

Race

39 age group division. Since the first triathlon seven years ago held on the campus of College Misericordia, the event has been embraced by the community and grown every year.

This year, there will be activities throughout the Labor Day Weekend for the triathletes and the spectators, beginning with a health fair sponsored by Wilkes-Barre General Hospital. That evening a culinary delight will be available when College Misericordia and Back Mountain Kiwanis host the 'Carbo-Load Spaghetti Dinner' featuring the winning 'Best Sauce in Wyoming Valley' recipe.

After the 1.5km swim, first leg of the race, gets underway at Harveys Lake, local artisans will open booths on the lawn of College Misericordia. The Country Arts and Crafts Fair will exhibit works by local artists including handmade jewelry, porcelain, pottery, woodcraft, leather craft and homemade rungs. Children will be entertained with games, balloons and face painting.

On campus, in open charcoal pits, chicken and roast beef will be barbecued and vendors will sell hometown specialties such as corn-on-the-cob, stromboli, pierogies, potato pancakes, pizza and ice cream.
