Sue and Joseph Hand

Joseph and Sue Hand renew their vows

Joseph R. and Sue Hand of Dallas renewed their wedding vows Friday, Aug. 19 on the occasion of Sue's birthday. It is their 21st year of marriage.

The Hands were originally married on May 29, 1967, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Larish, Orange. The vows were renewed at the Fellowship Evangelical Free Church, Hildebrandt Road, Dallas, in the presence of about 250 art students, friends and family members. Pastor Dwight Hodne conducted the ceremony.

Attendants for Sue Hand at the renewal were her college roommate, matron of honor, Carol Kloiber Usher, Bethlehem, (who served as maid of honor at the original ceremony), and daughter, Heather Lynne Hand who was maid of honor for her mother. Also serving as attendants were bridesmaids and fellow artists, Lowry Puckey, Geri Williams, and Young Chang, all of Dallas, and Karen Shelley, Centerville.

Attendants for Joe Hand at the renewal were best man Richard Williams, Dallas, and man of honor, Mayor Paul LaBar, Dallas, stepfather. Ushers were brother-in-law Bill Dupkanick, Vestal, NY; Steve Cameron, Dallas; Bob Chase, Bowmans Creek; and Rich Heiser, Sweet Valley.

The ceremony included a renewal of the wedding vows, written by the Hands, a program of slides set to the song "Wherever You Go", and recognition of special honorary attendants; the art students at Sue Hand's Imagery, Dallas.

The Charge was given by Pastor Dwight Hodne, pastor of the Fellowship Evangelical Free Church.

A reception was held in the church sanctuary for all those attending the renewal.

Joe and Sue Hand own and operate Sue Hand's Imagery on Main Street in Dallas. Their daughter, Heather, a student at Wilkes College, is associated with the family business. The Hands are active members of the Fellowship Evangelical Free Church. Sue is a nationally recognized artist and art instructor and has won several awards in international art competition.

Kernags open printery

By CHARLOT M. DENMON Staff Writer

A new business opened its doors in Dallas, Monday, August 17. Joe and Lynn Kernag, both experienced in the field of printing opened Precision Graphics in the Dallas Corners Building, Memorial Highway, Dallas.

Kernag graduated from Williamsport Community College with a degree in graphic arts and for 22 years worked with some of the larger graphic companies in the local area.

His wife, Lynn, was in the printing field for 13 years until she retired to raise a family. Among the positions she held was one with The Dallas Post. Lynn came out of retirement to work with her husband in their new business. In the future, they also plan to have their sons work with them in the graphics business.

Customers will find a wide range of graphic arts services available to them at Precision Graphics.

The Kernags do typesetting, layouts for all types of printing, brochures, program books, wedding invitations, copies of originals, such as deeds, birth certificates, wills and other papers. They do not do quick print work but will cooperate with customers in an emergency.

They are open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday, and by appointment evenings and Saturday.
