Andrew Merrill is named National Merit Scholarship semi-finalist

Two senior students at Wyoming Seminary College Preparatory School, Kingston, have recently been notified that they have been named semi-finalists in the 1989 National Merit Scholarship Competition. Shown in the photo with Wyoming Seminary president, Dr. Wallace F. Stettler, are Andrew Merrill, son of Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Merrill, Shavertown, on the left and David Meyer, son of Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Meyer, Kingston.

In addition to their National Merit performance these Dean's List students are also active in numerous school and community activities. Both received numerous honors and awards during their junior years at Seminary. Merrill was the recipient of the Rensselaer Mathematics and Science Award, finished first in the JETS (Junior Engineering Technical Society) regional competition in Computer Fundamentals and was the second place award winner in the Luzerne County Council of Teachers of Mathematics Contest.
