Political signs restricted in Kingston Township

The November Election is just around the corner. Again this year as in the past, Kingston Township has notified the County Republican and Democratic Committee that there exists an ordinance in Kingston Township prohibiting the posting of political posters and signs without the necessary permits. Kingston Township enacted this ordinance on August 12, 1981, in order to assure that the posters would be removed within 30 days after the election. The ordinance requires the posting of a $100.00 deposit which is returned to the candidate if he or she complies with the 30 day removal period. The ordinance prohibits the posting of placards prior to 30 days before the election also.

This ordinance was not enacted to prohibit the posters, but rather to control their posting and to require removal. The enforcement of this ordinance has been intense and most candidates comply with the provisions of the ordinance.

The permit can be obtained on Tuesday, Thursday or Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. and 2 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. at the Township Office from the Township Zoning Officer.
