Lehman-Jackson PTA holds first meeting of year

The Lehman-Jackson PTA recently held its first general meeting of the school year. Entitled "Introduction to Your PTA and School," the meeting included a description of the various programs to be held during the year and an introduction of teachers.

The meeting was highlighted by a performance of the 5th grade students.

Under the direction of Mrs. Jeanne Purcell, music teacher, the students sang and danced a special presentation of "Tall Tales and Heroes."

More than 400 people attended this event. Anyone wishing information on PTA membership is asked to call either Connie Fleeger or Charity Marlatt at the school, 675-2165.
