

Only yesterday

50 Years Ago - Nov. 11, 1938

Lehman tries for football title

Judge Arthur H. James of Plymouth, who was elected 84th governor of Pennsylvania will take a two or three week vacation before he selects his cabinet.

Early morning blaze destroys summer home of John Kunigonis at Harveys Lake.

Dallas Township School bond issue was defeated by the narrow margin of 43 votes.

Lehman football team makes first bid for local championship today.

Local Daddow-Isaacs American Legion Post organizes 20 years ago.

Married - Jean Turner and Ralph E. Evans.

You could buy - Eggs 29c doz.; flour 24 lbs. 69c; Calif. oranges 23c doz.; butter 2 lbs. 29c.

40 Years Ago - Nov. 12, 1948

New offices for telephone company

$500,000 phone office will house the headquarters staffs of Commonwealth, Luzerne and Bradford Telephone Companies as well as Harveys Lake Light Company executive office.

On the recommendation of Dallas Businessmen's Association Dallas Borough will enforce one hour parking on Main Street.

Portmaker, two year old fox terrier owned by Mrs. Louis Cottle, Shavertown, has attained championship honors from the American Kennel Club.

Mrs. Louise Sharp has opened her "Golden Stork" gift shop at 509 Main Road, Fernbrook.

Tunkhannock Tigers took the crown last week when it romped over Dallas Township 20-0.

You could buy - Pork loins 45c lb.; margarine 31c lb.; bread 13c loaf; fresh cranberries 25c lb.

30 Years Ago - Nov. 14, 1958

Norti Berti Memorial is voted

Weekend robbers get $1,400 at Whitesells and police have no clues to the thefts.

Frank Townend announced his intention not to run again for Dallas School directors when his term expires in 1959.

Ambulance Board of Directors vote Memorial for Norti Berti.

Jerome R. Gardner Jr. of Shrine Acres was named program director of the Big Sister Organization in Scranton.

Powerful Wilkes-Barre Township topples scrappy Lehman Scotties 32-13.

Earl T. Chamberlain of Lehman Township is opening and will maintain his office in his residence on Township Route 700 one mile south of Lehman Center.

Married - Mary Jo Laux and Albert Piccoli; Lorraine Joan Harrison and Robert Chamberlain.

You could buy - smoked picnics 43c lb.; Bartlett pears 2 lbs. 25c; frozen broccoli spears 2 10-oz. pkgs. 39c; assorted rolls 19c pkg.

20 Years Ago - Nov. 14, 1968

Land dispute in Harveys Lake

Dallas Township supervisors try to get construction underway for a garage before winter.

Harveys Lake Borough Council to seek court ruling on distribution of disputed land between Lake Township and the borough.

Largest horse arena in the county is being built in Dallas by Anthony Bogdon. There will be accommodations for 36 horses with eight-foot high walls between each stall. The arena will be 200 feet by 80 feet. It is the Highland Equestrian Center.

Lake-Lehman beats Coughlin 14-6.

The bloodmobile at Lake-Lehman High School netted 89 pints of blood.

Married - Carol Ann Lamoreaux and Gary M. Smith.

You could buy - Hams 49c lb.; grapefruit 5-lb. bag 59c; coffee 65c lb.; sharp cheese 79c lb.

10 Years Ago - Nov. 16, 1978

Jogging path opens at Penn State campus

Dallas Area Municipal Authority authorized their solicitor to bring delinquents to sheriff's sale.

Medical Center could put Lehman Township in violation of sewage treatment act because center should have sent a letter of intent to build to the township zoning board.

Kingston Township has approved a no parking ban on streets during snow-storms.

Dallas Mountaineers lost 14-7 to the Grenadiers Friday night at Wilkes-Barre Stadium.

Engaged - Charlotte Fellows and William Wink.

You could buy - Turkey 83c lb.; green peppers 39c lb.; tomato paste 5 6-oz. cans $1.00; ice cream 99c 1/2 gal.

PEOPLE

College Misericordia honor long-time employees

College Misericordia recently held its ninth annual Service Awards Dinner. Employees who have worked 10, 15, 20 and 35 years were honored.

The Academic Dean, Dr. Mary Glennon, RSM, was the master of ceremonies, while Dr. Bruce Wilson, acting president, presented each award recipient with engraved pins.

This was the first time that 10 year pins were awarded. Shown at the dinner are, from left, Nancy Kocher, Dallas; Marie Steele, Dallas; Joan Dente, Beaumont; Jean Hartman, Dallas; Sr. Madeline Gill, Dallas; Peg Cartier, Dallas; Millie Fowler, Dallas; Betty Porzuczek, Wilkes-Barre. Standing, Joseph Luksic, Wilkes-Barre; John Mulloy, Dallas; Sr. Martha Hanlon, Kingston; Sr. Mary Glennon; Gail Barry, Dallas; Sr. Anne Elizabeth McLaughlin, Dallas; Nikki Killiri, Shavertown; Mary Lou Komorek, Wilkes-Barre; Sr. Agnes Brennan, Wilkes-Barre; Dennis Fisher, Harveys Lake; Dr. Bruce Wilson.

Dawn Rothrock awarded scholarship

Dawn Rothrock, a junior at Wittenberg University, Springfield, Ohio, has been awarded a scholarship from AAL. AAL is a not-for-profit organization which provides a wide variety of benefits, including insurance and volunteer opportunities to Lutherans and their families. Rothrock is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Lynn Rothrock, 95 Mount Airy Road, Shavertown.

Rothrock is participating in AAL's Lutheran Campus Scholarship Program, one of several student scholarship programs sponsored by AAL.

AAL provides 1.4 million members in 7,100 nationwide branches with fraternal benefits, while its affiliated companies offer members other financial services. In addition, members are offered volunteer opportunities to help others in their own communities.

Police report

DALLAS TOWNSHIP

Accident injures four

Dallas Township police reported that on October 27, Loren Berlew driving a 1988 Dodge struck a 1984 Renault driven by Deborah Ruth Steele of Huntsville Road, Dallas on Lower Demunds Road. Berlew, Mrs. Steele and Lillian Turner and Justin Steele, passengers in the Steele vehicle were taken to Nesbitt Memorial Hospital for treatment by the Dallas and Kunkle ambulances. Mrs. Steele and the passengers in her car suffered moderate injuries.

House broken into

Patrolman Jeremy Torr reported that on November 5, Roberta Costello of Dallas Township told police that a window in the front of her house had been broken into and someone entered the house between 4 p.m. and 8:15 p.m., and took various items.

Key left under mat, car is stolen

On October 31, Officer Elliott Ide was called to the home of Ida Marino, Overbrook Avenue where a 1984 Ford Escort station wagon was taken from the driveway of the Marino home sometime between 11 p.m., October 30 and 6 a.m., October 31. The owner said the key to the car was left under the floor mat of the vehicle.

Jewelry stolen from home

Dallas Township Officer John Appel investigated a theft at the home of Mary Confair, Country Club road, Dallas, which was reported October 28. Mrs. Confair said that on October 26, a diamond horse-shoe ring valued at $3,800 and a fox head ring valued at $100 were taken from the master bedroom of her home where she had left them.

Theft at construction site

Contractor Frank Michaels on November 7, reported that two air conditioners were removed from their pads at Beaumont Inn sometime between 6:15 p.m., Sunday, November 6 and 6:45 a.m., November 7.

The persons also cut into the storage trailer and took 15 sheets of birch plywood and two 10-foot lengths of four inch PVC and one roll of copper tubing. Value of the items was estimated at $11,210. Chief Miers is conducting the investigation.

KINGSTON TOWNSHIP

DUI, reckless driving charged

On October 28, Patrolman Michael Moravec investigated a four-car collision on Route 309 near South Main Street. A 1981 Buick LeSabre driven by Edmund Stravinski of Bennett Street, Luzerne, was traveling south when a 1981 Oldsmobile driven by Clinton Ide of Wilkes-Barre, pulled across the passing lane in Stravinski's path. Stravinski swerved to avoid collision and began to spin striking Ide's vehicle.

Officer Moravec believed Stravinski to have been driving under the influence. Two witnesses observed Stravinski driving erratically and the accident.

Ide said he was traveling north in the passing lane and saw cars all over the road. Stravinski was charged with DUI and reckless driving.

DUI and disorderly conduct charged after accident

On October 31, Cathy Lee Jones, Crisman Road, Sweet Valley, was traveling south in a 1977 Jeep on Route 309 and lost control of the vehicle striking the concrete barrier in the center of the highway. Her vehicle became airborne for approximately 50 feet before it came down on its side.

Lee was removed by Kingston Township Rescue Unit and ambulance and was taken to Wilkes-Barre General Hospital for treatment. She was arrested for DUI and disorderly conduct by Officer Robert Weiss.

Hit and run accident

Police said that on November 2, on Route 309 and Harris Hill Road, a 1979 red Chevrolet traveling north struck a 1988 Chevrolet driven by Donald Kretchmer, Lehigh Street, Trucksville. When Kretchmer turned left on the green light his vehicle was struck by the red Chevrolet.

Driver of the red Chevrolet left the scene and continued north on Route 309. Police located the car parked in the rear of a bar in Fernbrook. Todd S. Ayers, RD 2, Harveys Lake, admitted to police that he was the driver of the car, that he panicked and left the scene. Ayers was charged with hit and run and a red light violation by Kingston Township Sergeant James Balavage.

Lights stolen from McDonald's

Police Sergeant James Balavage reported that on November 4, Gary Rodgers, manager of McDonald's Restaurant reported the theft of three decorative lights valued at approximately $600. Rodgers said the lights were pulled forcefully from their stands sometime between the night of November 3 and the morning of November 4.

Car stolen

Sergeant James Balavage received a report November 5, from John Jesso, 405 Carverton Road, Trucksville, that during the night hours of November 5, a 1979 Pontiac silver Trans Am, owned by Dawn Marie Redmond was taken from the parking lot of the Kandle Lite Motel. Complainant stated his mother is the wife of the motel owner and the vehicle is parked there at night. He also said an extra set of keys were in the console of the car.

DALLAS BOROUGH

Child strick by car

Officer James Drury on October 30 was called to investigate an accident on Davenport Street, Dallas. The report said Kristine Rae Gill, 139 Davenport St., Dallas was driving south on Davenport Street. As she was passing a parked car, a child ran from behind a vehicle and into the side of Gill's vehicle.

When Gill got out of her car to check on the child, her vehicle went over an embankment and struck a utility pole. The Biggs child was removed by Dallas Ambulance to Nesbitt Memorial Hospital.

Simple assault

On November 7, Roger Alan Sadowski, Jr., 136 W. Church St., Nanticoke, was charged with simple assault and harrasment for striking Steven Hagenbach in the Dallas Village Shopping Center. It is alleged that on October 27, Sadowski walked up to Hagenbach in the shopping center and hit him in the face.

Officer James J. Drury was the investigating officer.

Happy Holidays

Receive this lovely crystal pitcher when you open a First Eastern Holiday Club.*

Save as little as $2 a week or as much as $40. And you can make your deposit by coupon book or automatic transfer.

Open your First Eastern Holiday Club today ... and use your crystal pitcher throughout the year!

FIRST EASTERN BANK Member FDIC

"Here where you need us"

*Gift free with $10, $20, or $40 club or any automatic transfer club • One gift per qualifying club • Offer and quantities limited • Pitcher size: 68 oz. On any club closed before the last payment is due, First Eastern will pay the interest to date; but there will be a $5 service charge • © 1988 First Eastern Bank, N.A.