Dallas Junior High will have trip to the capital

The ninth grade AMERICAN EXPERIENCE classes of the Dallas Junior High School are planning an educational field trip to Washington, D.C. The students will visit various memorials and the museums at the Smithsonian Institution. A greater sense of appreciation for the nation's history and an increase in patriotic feeling will be developed through the trip, as well as increased knowledge in subject material. Seen planning the trip are Mr. John Johnson, trip coordinator. Standing from left to right are freshman Holly Bolesta, Ken Berlew, Eric Clothier and Trisha Bulford.

College Misericordia plans academic year fundraising

College Misericordia plans to raise in excess of $1 million as part of a comprehensive fundraising effort for the 1988-89 academic year, said Acting President Dr. Bruce L. Wilson recently.

Last year, Misericordia's overall fundraising results totaled $843,150, exceeding its $660,000 goal. This total, in addition to grants, foundations awards and other sources, focused on annual contributions to the College. A significant portion of the College's fundraising goals are contributed by community friends, businesses and alumni through the College's Annual Fund campaign.

"We are looking to the strong network of community friends and business leaders who believe in what College Misericordia is doing to help make this year the most successful ever," said Wilson. "That kind of effort backed by the growing support of our alumni will form a strong base for our total fundraising goal."

Of the $1 million goal for this year, alumni, friends and business leaders are expected to raise $240,000 for the Annual Campaign that supports scholarships, student aid and yearly operating expenses.

The balance of the total effort will be secured through federal grants, foundation awards and special contributions this year for the capital improvement to the College's renovated Science Building.

Joseph Bradley, president of Golden Business Machines, will chair the Community Phase. His efforts will bring together about 50 volunteers to contact past and potential donors during a special two-day business and community phonathon.

The Alumni Phase will be chaired by Harveys Lake residents Karen Passarella Boback, Ph.D., '73 with assistance from vice-chair Dr. Barbara Day-Klein '74. In addition to coordinating volunteers, the Alumni chairs will also try to increase the penetration of alumni giving.

The funds raised by alumni, students and community volunteers assists students with financial aid, provides support for faculty development, and helps the college expand undergraduate and graduate programs. Furthermore, a successful Annual Fund campaign helps ensure a balanced budget, added Wilson.

Dallas Junior High kids have new computers

Recently two Apple compatible Laser 128 ex computers were given to the students of Dallas Junior High School. The computers were purchased from funds earned by the former Junior High School Store. In order to provide access to all students, the computers have been placed in the school library. In observance of Computer Learning Month, the students have been instructed in the use of the new Laser computers.

Penn State Health Club donates to Vanchure family

The Penn State Wilkes-Barre Health Club recently donated $450 to the family of Jennifer Vanchure, the two and a half month-old infant, who was diagnosed with congenital malignant osteopetrosis, a rare bone disease. The students, in presenting the check to Jennifer's father Ron Vanchure, said they hope the funds will help offset the costs for a bone marrow transplant, which the family hopes will cure the child of the disease.
