Lehman-Jackson PTA holds first meeting of school year

The Lehman-Jackson PTA recently held its first general meeting of the school year. Entitled "Introduction to Your PTA and School," the meeting included a description of the various programs to be held during the year and an introduction of teachers.

The meeting was highlighted by a performance of the 5th grade students. Under the direction of Mrs. Jeanne Purcell, music teacher, the students sang and danced a special presentation of "Tall Tales and Heroes."

More than 400 people attended this event. Anyone wishing information on PTA membership is asked to call either Connie Fleeger or Charity Marlatt at the school, 675-2165.

Gate of Heaven PTG plans family festival

The Gate of Heaven PTG invites the public to attend their Family Festival to be held Friday and Saturday, Nov. 18 and 19, in the school's auditorium. Children's games, homemade crafts and food will be available each day. Friday at 7 p.m. a mini auction will offer new merchandise at reasonable prices. Pat Ward will be on hand to entertain the children. Holiday candy and flowers will be sold both days. Saturday hours are from 11 a.m. - 4 p.m. Make plans to attend. Proceeds from the affair will benefit Gate of Heaven School.

Pow Wow was a success

"A great success" is what the Cub Scout Pow Wow held on October 27 should be called. The purpose of the event was to train Cub Scout Leaders, however, it proved to be just as much fun as educational. One hundred Scouters were in attendance. Most came in Western garb and brought decorated box lunches as part of the theme "Cub Scout Corral". Prizes were given to Flo Lech and Al Karolchik for best costumes and to Packs 254 and 155 best following the theme.
