Dallas Junior High committee plans field trip

Team three faculty members and students of the Dallas Junior High School seventh grade have been in the process of planning a field trip to the Franklin Institute in Philadelphia. Several special activities are being planned for the day, including a visit to the planetarium, a scavenger hunt and a tour of the Paris Gold Exhibit.

Bobbie Day-Klein vice-chairs Misericordia's alumni campaign

Bobbie Day-Klein vice-chairs this year's Alumni Phase of College Misericordia's Annual Campaign. Assisting chair Karen Passarella Boback, Day-Klein, with the help of other graduates, students, and Sisters of Mercy, plans to raise $120,000 for the college. This support was pledged primarily during the phonathon on November 6, 7, 8, 13, 14, and 15. Equal support was also raised at that time from the community and local businesses.

"We are looking to the strong network of community friends and business leaders who believe in what College Misericordia is doing to help make this year the most successful ever. That kind of effort backed by the growing support of our alumni will form a strong base for our total $1 million dollar goal."

The money raised by the alumni goes toward scholarships, student aid and yearly operating expenses.

Day-Klein is a chiropractor who shares a practice with her husband, Albert, also a chiropractor. After graduating from Misericordia in 1974 with a bachelors degree in nutrition, Bobbie pursued a masters degree at Marywood. She completed her doctorate at the Pennsylvania Chiropractic College in Philadelphia. She and her husband reside at Harveys Lake with their four children.
