Back Mountain Memorial Library contributors thanked at reception

Major contributors to the recent capital funds campaign for the benefit of the new Back Mountain Memorial Library were recognized at a reception held at the Library. Placques were presented to several donors present and hung in various rooms honoring the memory of members of their respective families. Included among those remembered were: Mrs. Jan Scovell in the children's library; Abram Nesbitt II in the circulation room; Mrs. Ralph Garrahan and daughter in the children's library and Mrs. Rose Bennett Harvey in the reference room. The capital funds campaign has raised nearly $400,000 to date, with an additional $50,000 still needed to complete the proposed community room and various other projects at the library.

St. Therese's Church had Holiday service

A Thanksgiving Ecumenical service celebrated by the clergy of the Back Mountain churches was hosted by Rev. Joe Meighan recently at St. Therese's Church, Shavertown. A service of Scripture, prayer and song was highlighted with the Thanksgiving Message delivered by Rabbi Arnold Shevlin.
